Third Sunday of Lent Reflection

We are almost to the middle of Lent and before we know it Holy Week will be upon us. May we evaluate what we are doing to take that journey inward to bring about a greater conversion of ourselves, and to purify ourselves to encounter Jesus at a deeper level this Easter. Now is the acceptable time to turn ourselves completely over to God. Lent is a season of more fervent prayer, May we seek to take sometime and share with God what is in our heart and on our mind.

Baptisms at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church

The next pre-baptismal class will be on Wednesday, March 14th in the Parish Hall at 7PM This class is for adults only, please no children. The next baptism at Our Lady of Guadalupe will be on Sunday, March 18th at 1PM. For more information or to register for this class, please call the parish office.

Easter Novena

If you were with us during our previous Easters you will remember the beautiful Easter Novena that we had for the nine days following Easter. This is a special way to remember our loved ones who we once shared the joy of Easter with. This year, your donation to enroll your faithful departed loved ones will be used for Easter flowers for the church. In the past we have had parishioners donate Easter lilies in memory of people who could not celebrate Easter with us. This Novena will last for nine days and the flowers will be a visual for us for all the Easter season. Envelopes are available at the back of the church today, or at the parish office.

Stations of the Cross

On each Friday of Lent at 7:00PM, we are celebrating the Stations of the Cross. The Stations were a development of prayer based upon the Passion and death of Jesus Christ. The practice of celebrating the Stations began in Jerusalem and then spread throughout the Church by the Franciscans. As in past years, our Stations will be bilingual – booklets will be available in both Spanish and English. During the Stations, there will be an opportunity for Confession

Invite Christ to be a part of your journey of Lent. Allow the light of Christ to enter any darkness in your life. May you live in the freedom of God's children, living in God's Peace and Love.

Celebration of the Second Scrutiny

Next Sunday at the 5:00PM Mass we join our Elect and Candidates in hearing the story of Jesus healing the man born blind. Together we welcome the light of Christ to shine on our spiritual blindness and pray for the courage to live as children of light. Let us pray that God may dispel darkness and be the light that shines in our hearts of our elect and candidates.

of our elect and candidates.

I, the Lord, am your God . . .
You shall not have other gods besides me.

— Exodus 20:2a, 3

La salvación no está en venta

Este mundo es un mercado donde todo se compra y se vende. Los anuncios publicitarios nos informan continuamente de que podemos obtener todo lo que necesitamos y a buenos precios. Y tantas veces oímos el mensaje que terminamos creyéndolo. A pies juntillas. A veces pensamos que eso es típico de nuestra sociedad capitalista pero no es así. A lo largo de la historia siempre ha estado presente en la mentalidad de las personas, de una forma u otra, esa idea de que todo se puede comprar. Y, cómo no, esa idea también ha estado presente en la relación con Dios. A Dios también se le compra. Se supone que él tiene algo que ofrecernos y que nosotros le podemos dar algo a cambio. Todo se queda en un toma y daca. Quizá por eso los judíos habían terminado convirtiendo el templo en un mercado como cuenta el Evangelio de Juan. No sólo porque hubiese allí muchos cambistas y puestos donde se vendían las ofrendas para el templo, exvotos, recuerdos y cosas parecidas. Lo peor era la mentalidad de la gente que pensaba que ofrecer aquellas cosas era el precio que había que pagar para obtener el favor de Dios, aplacar su ira u obtener el perdón de los pecados. frente a esa idea, las lecturas de este domingo lanzan un mensaje poderoso: nuestro Dios no está en venta, nuestro Dios no tiene un puesto en el mercado de la vida ofreciendo paz de conciencia o tranquilidad o salud o... Nuestro Dios no vende ni compra nada. Nuestro Dios es el que nos sacó de Egipto, el que nos liberó de la esclavitud. Ése es nuestro Dios. Dios es el que da la libertad, la vida y la salvación a los que vivían en la esclavitud y en la muerte. Sin pedir nada a cambio, sin pagar un precio previo. Su única condición: que vivamos la libertad, que no nos dejemos esclavizar por nada ni por nadie, que compartamos la vida. Podemos releer todas las normas que se dan en la primera lectura y veremos como todas ellas son liberadoras, todas invitan a la persona a vivir en solidaridad y en fraternidad, en libertad y respetando la libertad de los otros. En Cuaresma, Dios se nos manifiesta como el que nos libera de la esclavitud, de todas las esclavitudes. Hasta de la muerte, que es la última de las esclavitudes. Así lo experimentaremos cuando celebremos la resurrección de Jesús en los días ya no lejanos de la Pascua. Y eso lo hace Dios por pura gracia, por puro amor nuestro. No hay precio que pagar, no hay condiciones previas. No tenemos que venir a la Iglesia como si fuera parte del precio de nuestra salvación. Dios nos ama porque sí. Y basta. En nosotros está el ser agradecidos por lo que nos regala y compartirlo con los que nos rodean. En nosotros está el amarle como él nos ama. En nosotros está el reconocer como Padre al que tanto nos ama .

SANTIFICA EL SÁBADO

No hay mejor forma de profundizar nuestras devociones de Cuaresma que repasar los Diez Mandamientos. Los primeros tres, los cuales se refieren a una buena relación con Dios, son más extensos. Quizás el que más nos cueste a nosotros, que siempre estamos tan ocupados, es santificar las fiestas refiriéndose al día del Señor. Si tomáramos este mandamiento literalmente, no cambiaríamos a los bebés, los platos quedarían en la mesa y quizás ni siquiera serviríamos las comidas. Los enfermos no serían atendidos y no se haría nada que estuviera relacionado con el trabajo físico. ¿Se considera trabajo al trabajo mental? ¿Y qué hay de cambiarle el pañal al bebé (¡pobrecito!)? Debemos depender de Dios para discernir de qué manera debemos respetar y santificar el día del Señor en nuestras vidas. La clave de este mandamiento es que Dios nos ha dado un gran regalo: un día entero por semana en el cual somos libres para descansar, rendirle culto a Dios, cantar, celebrar, amar y alegrarnos. Como proclama "Los mandatos del Señor son rectos y alegran el corazón" . Nuestro descanso del domingo es un gran regalo que debemos recibir de Dios con alegría, no poniendo peros

House of Yahweh Irish Spring Gala

The House of Yahweh at 4046 Marine Avenue in Lawndale, CA provides food, clothing, shelter and other social services to over 500 less fortunate families each week. This is done by processing gifts from donors, sponsors, stores and individuals and providing them to the needy in South Bay Los Angeles. We are holding a gala evening of food, rousing music and entertainment called "Irish Spring". It features an open bar serving wine, beer and soft drinks, a four-course gourmet dinner, music by Paddy's Pig Irish Band, Irish Step Dance by the Lyons School of Dance and Live and Silent Auctions where you can pick up some real bargains such as wine, restaurant gift certificates, vacations, art, and tickets for other events. Mark your calendars for March 24th, 2018 from 6 to 10 p.m. at the Norris Pavilion in Rolling Hills Estates; tickets are $150. Call Kathy Bradford, Irish Spring Gala Chair, at 310-265-9812 for more information.

We Share	$ 3,400.00
Total Collection February 18, 2018	$11,444.00

It's true that some people are good at giving, just as some people are naturally well coordinated. They start out with an advantage when they begin to practice stewardship or learn to juggle. But giving is a skill which can be developed, just like juggling. It's up to us to become the best givers we can be.

Almsgiving

We have provided Lenten Folders at the back of the church today so your family can easily practice Almsgiving this Lent. This year as in the previous years all of your donations will be given to the Franciscan Missions in Vietnam. Thank you in advance for your generosity.

Together In Mission 2018

Thank you to each of you who have helped with "Together In Mission". Please consider "Together in Mission" as one of your charitable acts of Lent. It is a way to give alms to charity and to also know that your help will reach those who need it. As you pay pledges and make new donations we will reach our goal of $42,783. Your support allows the Church to function in the poorer areas of the Archdiocese. Thank You!

If you are not already an active member of this community, consider sharing in what we have to offer. Our parish is here to assist all who wish to know God more deeply. We serve the community through outreach, education, social activities, sacramental preparation, and comfort of the sick and those who mourn. Feel free to call on us if we may be of service to you in anyway.

WE DON'T HAVE A JOB TO DO.
WE HAVE A MISSION.

The time has come for Our Lady of Guadalupe Church to grow. Grow in size. Grow in generosity. Grow in faith. And that growth is not always comfortable, or easy.

But it's more than just a job we do, or a task we undertake, it's a mission we accept. A mission to help our ministries do more, our children learn more, and our community love more. Please join Our Lady of Guadalupe and become a pledging member of our Capital Campaign as we make it our mission to grow.

Visit www.ourladyofguadalupechurch.org/capital-campaign/ to learn more and make your pledge.
