The Transitus of St. Francis

The Transitus of St. Francis is traditionally celebrated by Franciscans all over the world on October 3rd. This is the vigil of the Feast of St. Francis and is a night to commemorate the death of our beloved Saint. Transitus is a Latin word that means passage or crossing over. In every account written on the death of St. Francis, it is remembered that he crossed over from life on earth to eternal life with the Lord, full of great joy and song.

We will celebrate the Transitus (bi-lingual) at 7:00 pm . Please make an effort to join us if you are able to attend! Of course, attending Mass is the best way to celebrate both the life and death of St. Francis, but there are a few other things that you can do to honor St. Francis and take part in the Transitus in your own home:

1. Meditate on some of the writings and prayers of St. Francis. Pray for peace in our world!
2. St. Francis is the patron saint of animals and ecology. Spend some time picking up trash and cleaning up your neighborhood.
3. Read the story of the death of St. Francis

Prayer of the Holy Rosary

October is the month dedicated to promoting the prayer of the Holy Rosary. We encourage you to pray it at home and to join us to pray it in community weekdays, following the daily Mass. Bring your rosary and all your prayerful intentions with you

With Mary everything, without her nothing.

The Seal of the Franciscan Order

The seal of the Franciscan Order depicts two arms placed over the cross of Christ. The bare arm of Jesus on the cross; the robed arm represents the arm of St. Francis of Assisi.

The placement of both arms together represents St. Francis' ardent desire to more fully unite himself with the love and sufferings of Christ. Two years before he died at the age of 44, after a night of prayer, St. Francis had a vision of a winged seraph nailed to a cross; he also felt intense stabs of pain in his hands, feet and side. Afterwards he discovered that his body was permanently marked with the five wounds of Christ crucified, called the Stigmata.

Today is Respect Life Sunday

Although we set aside October to particularly pray for respect for all human life, let us never cease this urgent work. Love and justice must motivate each of us to work for a transformation of our own hearts so that we can transform the world around us. This is the message of Pope Francis.

“Even the weakest and most vulnerable, the sick, the old, the unborn and the poor, are masterpieces of God’s creation, made in his own image, destined to live forever, and deserving of the utmost reverence and respect.”

“Let us say ‘Yes’ to life and not death.” “say ‘Yes’ to the God who is love, life and freedom, and who never disappoints.”

Program, hosted by Chuck Neff at 9 AM on Monday, October 1. The guest spiritual director that day, will be Fr. Paul, talking about finding your Vocation in life.

JESUS Y EL EVANGELIO INCLUYEN, NO EXCLUYEN A NADIE

Este domingo tenemos la invitación de Jesús a predicar todos sin ninguna distinción y hacerlo de diferente manera, no hay que apropiarse del espíritu. El relato del Libro de los Números enseña que son muy diversas las actuaciones del Espíritu. Una de ellas es hablar en lenguas. Otra, más importante, es el haber recibido el encargo de dirigir y enseñar al pueblo de Dios. Desde Moisés, representante de Dios (que no hablaba en lenguas ni profetizaba con trances), el Espíritu se derrama sobre los inspirados. No siempre Dios comunica su espíritu por los canales oficiales. El Espíritu es soberano por encima de las instituciones. El carisma no debe ser rechazado por la autoridad. El presente pasaje de los Números confiere un carácter sagrado al origen de la institución de los ancianos, fundando así la importancia que tuvo siempre tanto religiosa como política. Los celos de Josué anticipan la misma actitud de los discípulos de Jesús frente al exorcista que arrojaba demonios sin ser de su grupo (evangelio de hoy). La gran tentación de la autoridad religiosa ha sido siempre monopolizar el Espíritu, pero el Espíritu se comunica a quien quiere y como quiere. Los que mandan no deberían estar celosos de que el pueblo profetice alguna vez; más bien debiera tomar nota de lo que dice Pablo a los obispos: "No apaguéis el Espíritu".

En algunos libros del Antiguo Testamento las riquezas se presentan como una señal de las bendiciones divinas. Se valoran las riquezas como posibilidad de practicar la "justicia" haciendo sacrificios a Dios. Pero la Biblia condena unánimemente el abuso de los ricos, la ambición desmedida y la explotación de los pobres. Además, los profetas han visto en la riqueza una fuente de injusticia. Para los evangelistas la riqueza aparece como un serio obstáculo que impide la entrada en el Reino de Dios. Es actual lo que dice Santiago. Los que viven bien deben su bienestar a que dos mil millones de personas viven en la miseria. La defensa de sus privilegios trae cada año como consecuencia inevitable la muerte injusta de millones de personas por hambre, represión y guerras. Los países ricos son incapaces de acoger en su tierra a los que huyen de la miseria o de la guerra. El evangelio, que es Buena Noticia para los pobres, se convierte en mala noticia para los ricos. Sin embargo, los ricos siguen acaparando riquezas sin caer en la cuenta de que el juicio de Dios es inminente. La retención del jornal es aquí sólo un botón de muestra de la explotación y de la injusticia de los ricos. Claramente lo expone la Doctrina Social de la Iglesia, la gran ignorada. Sarcásticamente, el autor dice a estos ricos que son como los cerdos que se ceban para la matanza.

No rechazar a los pequeños en la fe. Las palabras de Jesús en el evangelio van dirigidas contra esa determinada concepción de la autoridad como control, como monopolio exclusivo y excluyente. Hay aquí un canto en favor de los "pequeños" que creen en Jesús. Poco estimados, más ignorantes o débiles en la fe, jamás hay que hacerles tropezar (escandalizar). Estos pequeños pueden ser en la comunidad los que necesiten ser ayudados con cariño y paciencia para poder evolucionar sin desconcertar su fe. Pero también los que sufren la tentación de abandonar la Iglesia por la lentitud de ésta en renovarse. Todo el que se hace discípulo de Jesús y aún no ha llegado a una fe adulta es aun pequeño. Y el que aparta de su camino a uno de estos pequeñuelos es un homicida, ya que les impide llegar a la verdadera vida. "Escándalo" es la piedra que nos hace tropezar, el impedimento que se encuentra en el camino. La tentación nunca procede exclusivamente de fuera; de ahí que el hombre deba procurar también no escandalizarse a sí mismo. Y esto no es posible si uno no lucha contra sus propias inclinaciones y no toma medidas negándose a sí mismo.

Cristianos anónimos. También en nuestros días hay muchos hombres que exorcizan el mal y la injusticia de nuestra sociedad y, con todo, no son expresamente cristianos, éstos son de los nuestros aunque no sean "de los nuestros", pues es claro que no están contra nosotros. Son los "cristianos anónimos", muchas personas solidarias e implicadas en organizaciones humanitarias que luchan denodadamente contra la exclusión que sufren millones de personas en nuestro mundo. No les impidamos actuar, sumemos nuestras fuerzas a las suyas, nuestros proyectos a los suyos, para hacer un mundo más humano. También ellos colaboran a la extensión del Reino de Dios, la "civilización del amor" y de la paz de la Justicia y del bien común. Hagámoslo posible nosotros. Paz y Bien.

Youth Ministry Calendar

Teens preparing for Confirmation must attend at least 3 (that's THREE) youth nights each year as part of their Confirmation preparation process.

Our youth nights are gatherings with Fellowship, Recreation, Reflection and Refreshments with a theme that ties it all to our faith. The youth nights meet most Sundays in the Hall after the 6:30pm Mass. All high school teens are welcome, confirmed or not.

Other Youth Ministry activities and events have included hikes, sports, service, fundraisers, and more. Keep an eye on the Youth Ministry calendar. Also, find us on Instagram @olgyouthministry ... search for "OLG Youth Ministry"

Youth Night – "Getting To Know You' Game Night with BUNCO"

New to Our Lady of Guadalupe Youth Ministry? Or not? Get to know your OLG family and mixing it up with Bunco - a team game played with dice. You're bound to meet new friends in this fun community competition. There will be prizes and food!

Youth Night – "Zoom In on OLG - Scavenger Hunt"

In this zoomed-in scavenger hunt, you'll take a closer look at things around OLG and also get better acquainted with one another as our new Confirmation year begins. Bring your smartphone or digital camera, and be ready for fun!

In The Middle

Our young adolescent youth ministry is open to all public and private school students in 6th, 7th, and 8th grade. Teens meet new friends through a variety of activities and enjoy a cool Christian/Catholic atmosphere. This ministry allows young people to gain a firm faith foundation to stand in the mist of challenging influences and competing "truths" in life. We cover faith "basics" and keep your children wanting to learn more.

UPCOMING EVENTS

OPOTIONAL: Service Night Thursday, October 11

October 26 (Special Event begins at 6:30PM)

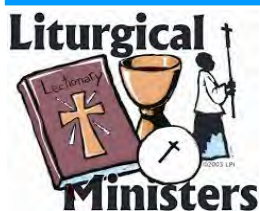

We meet in the Parish Hall from 6:15—8:15PM on 16 Fridays from September through April. If you have any questions please contact email Theresa Avila at religioused@olgmail.org, or by phone (310) 372-7077 ext 224.

.SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, or national and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

Did you Know?

Children and Youth Programs implemented throughout the Archdiocese of LA

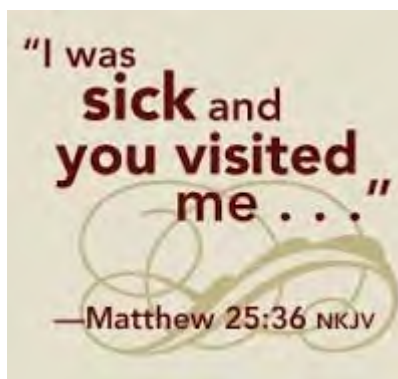

Every year, students at Catholic elementary and high schools, religious education, confirmation and youth ministry programs in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles receive age-appropriate child abuse prevention and reporting training. The "Empowering God's Children Program" is designed for Kindergarten through 12th grade students. This program teaches children and young people to understand appropriate and inappropriate boundaries and gives them the tools that empower them to take action and report if they feel uncomfortable, scared or confused. More than 1.4 million students have attended these programs since 2004.

October Baptisms

Our next baptism is scheduled for October 21, 2018 at 1PM

Parents need to be active worshipping members of Our Lady of Guadalupe attending weekly Mass and participating in the life of the community. All parents and godparents, if you have not taken a baptismal class in the last 4 years should attend a baptismal class that are held here at OLG on the Wednesday, October 10th at 7PM in the Parish Hall. If parents or Godparents cannot attend this class they may go to any church and attend a class and bring a certificate of completion to the baptism. Please call the parish office to request a baptism registration or for more information.

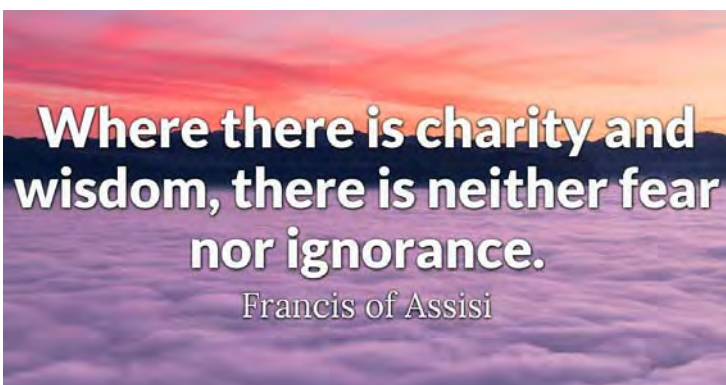

Homebound Eucharistic Ministers

Holy Communion to the Home-Bound/Shut-In: Our Eucharistic Ministers bring Holy Communion every Sunday morning, or as requested, to those individuals who are not able to attend weekly Mass. If you or someone you know is unable to attend Mass and would like to receive Holy Communion at home, please call the Parish Office.

Day of Retreat for Young Women

Do you wish to learn more about living your Catholic faith as a young, single woman in today's culture? The Dominican Nuns of Corpus Christi monastery will be hosting Janua Caeli retreat for young women ages 18-38 on Saturday October 13th at the monastery on 215 Oak Grove Avenue in Menlo Park, California. For more information and to register, visit our website at www.opnunsmenlo.org or contact Sister Joseph Marie, O.P. at vocations@opnunsmenlo.org.

St. Francis's Peace Prayer

Lord, make me and instrument of Your peace.

Where there is hatred, let me sow love.

Where there is injury, pardon,

Where there is doubt, faith,

Where there is despair, hope,

Where there is darkness, light,

and where there is sadness, joy.

O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console;

To be understood, as to understand;

To be loved, as to love; For it is in giving that we receive.

It is in pardoning that we are pardoned And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.
