God's Word Today

Our Lenten journey of conversion today reaches the holy city of Jerusalem. "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?" Throughout Lent we have been journeying with the Lord to Jerusalem. Today he enters the holy city amid cries of joy and gladness. Those cries of joy turn quickly to cries of pain and anguish, which culminate in the words of abandonment that Jesus utters from the cross. Imagine the despair the Lord experienced when he felt abandoned by all, especially his own Father. As we prepare to listen to God's word, let us remember the pain and anguish that the Lord Jesus suffered on our behalf.

RCIA

If anyone declare publicly that they belong to me, I will do the same for them before My Father in Heaven... (Matthew 10:32)

This coming Saturday night we celebrate the Easter Vigil. It is at this liturgy that some of these candidates will receive the Sacraments of Baptism, First Communion and Confirmation, while others will receive First Communion and Confirmation. We ask that you continue to pray for them as they prepare for this glorious moment. These people have spent many days, weeks, and months, studying, discerning, and praying in answer to God's call.

Kristy Aguirre, Sayde Chisholm, Brett Tagami, Arianna Herrera, Andrew Lomeli and Prabhu Victor

Easter Novena

If you were with us during our previous Easters you will remember the beautiful Easter Novena that we had for the nine days following Easter. This is a special way to remember our loved ones who we once shared the joy of Easter with. This year, your donation to enroll your faithful departed loved ones will be used for Easter flowers for the church. In the past we have had parishioners donate Easter lilies in memory of people who could not celebrate Easter with us. This Novena will last for nine days and the flowers will be a visual for us for all the Easter season. THERE IS STILL TIME TO ENROLL YOUR LOVED ONES IN THE NOVENA THAT BEGINS NEXT SUNDAY. Envelopes are available at the back of the church.

Divine Mercy Sunday

Divine Mercy Sunday is on April 28, 2019. It is the first Sunday after Easter Sunday. The Divine Mercy Novena starts on Good Friday, April 19. The Novena leaflets will be on the table near the church entrance on Palm Sunday, April 14. We will conclude the novena in church at 3PM on Sunday, April 28. Confessions will also be available. Please invite family members and friends who have been away from church to coming back, reconciling with God and receiving the Graces of this day. Jesus told St. Faustina "On Divine Mercy the very depths of My Tender Mercy are open. The soul that will go to Confession and receive Holy Communion shall receive complete forgiveness of sins and punishment.

"A simple act of abandonment is enough to overcome the barriers of darkness and sorrow, of doubt and desperation. The rays of Your Divine Mercy restore hope, in a special way, to those who feel overwhelmed by the burden of sin".

ENTRÓ COMO REDENTOR Y SALIÓ CRUCIFICADO

Domingo de Ramos, hemos llegado al inicio de la Semana de las Semanas, iniciamos recordando que todo el mundo quería hacer a Jesús Rey, pero no sabían a qué tipo de reinado querían llevarlo, pero el tiempo viene a hablar y nos enseña lo que sucedió y lo que sucede, la traición, el olvido, el miedo, la euforia, los intereses personales todo eso entra en juego en este misterio tan grande que llevamos en nuestras vidas como Iglesia. Bendito el que viene en nombre del Señor. Santa: gritando entusiasmados la llegada del que viene en nombre del Señor, dando vivas al Altísimo. El que grita es el pueblo sencillo, la gente pobre que espera y desea la llegada de un futuro mejor, de un reino nuevo como el que predica este profeta de Galilea. El domingo de Ramos siempre ha tenido en la tradición católica un aire de fiesta, de entusiasmo, de alegre fe y esperanza cristiana.

A Jesús lo perciben y percibimos de muchas formas, “Veían a Jesús como a un redentor, como un liberador, como alguien más poderoso y más santo que los jefes políticos y religiosos que tenían. Y querían que este profeta les librara ya, anulando poderosa y milagrosamente a la gente que se le oponía. Por eso se desanimaron tan pronto, cuando vieron que este profeta era llevado, vencido y ajusticiado, por los poderosos de siempre. A muchos de nosotros puede pasarnos hoy lo mismo que pasó a la gente sencilla del tiempo de Jesús. Queremos que alguien nos arregle de un plumazo la situación de crisis por la que estamos pasando; queremos que nos arreglen las cosas hoy y ya, como por arte de magia, sin que nosotros tengamos que poner algo, o mucho, por nuestra parte. Y no es así: la redención sólo llega después de un tiempo duro de pasión. Si nos negamos a la pasión, estamos renunciando a la redención. Estoy hablando en sentido cristiano, claro.

Ellos gritaron más fuerte: ¡crucificalo! Los que gritaban ahora eran los mismos que le aclamaron cuando entraba en Jerusalén. ¿Por qué lo hacían? El texto evangélico dice que porque los sumos sacerdotes habían soliviantado a la gente. Podríamos decir que el pueblo, las masas, eran entonces más fácilmente manejables y manipulables de lo que son ahora. Porque entonces la gente, el pueblo sencillo, no sabía ni leer, ni escribir. Pero no conviene exagerar las diferencias. Ahora, como entonces, la gente prefiere creer al que le promete un futuro mejor, más rápido, y con el menor sacrificio posible. Todos queremos que llegue cuanto antes el reino de Dios, un reino de justicia, de amor y de paz. Pero no queremos andar el camino propuesto por Cristo para llegar a él, el camino de las Bienaventuranzas. Dejamos que otros sean los pobres, los mansos, los que luchan por la justicia, los que perdonan, los que son generosos en amar a todos, preferentemente a los más necesitados. Nosotros queremos primero el éxito, el dinero, las satisfacciones materiales, el poder político y económico; para nosotros eso es lo primero y urgente; el camino de las bienaventuranzas puede esperar. Y por eso, al que nos pide humildad, fortaleza en la adversidad, lucha contra la injusticia, corazón limpio y un amor generoso y sacrificado a Dios y al prójimo le volvemos la espalda. Y dejamos que crucifiquen al Cristo que predica amor y perdón, lucha contra el mal y amor hasta la muerte. En este Domingo de Ramos hagamos el propósito de luchar siempre contra el mal y de ponernos a favor de tantas personas que, por amor a Dios y al prójimo, son capaces de exponer hasta su propia vida en defensa de los valores del evangelio de Jesús. Así lo hizo nuestro Salvador, el aclamado primero como Rey y crucificado después como reo.

La Iglesia y su liturgia –que derrochan gran sabiduría– han puesto en la misa de hoy ese relato completo de la Pasión de Nuestro Señor Jesucristo para que –digámoslo así– no haya duda sobre que celebramos hoy. Por eso, la liturgia tiene una lectura de júbilo, asociada a la procesión de Ramos y el relato íntegro de la Pasión. En este ciclo C hemos escuchado la Pasión según San Lucas que nos da la idea de que lo que se nos relata es testimonio de la voluntad salvadora universal de Dios y de su amor representado en el sacrificio y posterior victoria de Cristo Jesús. Estarán de acuerdo conmigo que esta lectura en conjunto emociona y deja el alma perfectamente preparada para vivir la Semana Santa –Semana Grande se decía antes–, de la que el Domingo de Ramos es pórtico “físico” e inicio “psicológico”, Animados por este Dios de la vida y de la Esperanza, dispongámonos a participar como Iglesia, como parroquia, como familia. Dios espera siempre por nosotros aun cuando le aclamamos como Rey o no. Paz y Bien.

Managing God's Gifts To Us

Totals for last weekend were not available at the time of this publication.

Almsgiving

If you picked up a Lenten can or folder for your Lenten Almsgiving, please remember to turn them in to the parish office or in the collection basket before Holy Week, so we can send your donations to the Missions by Easter. Thank you for your generosity to those less fortunate.

The Good Friday Pontifical Collection

Every year, each parish in the United States takes up a collection on Good Friday, as designated by the Holy Father. This collection helps support the work of the Franciscans in the Holy Land. The money is used to care for the people and places of the Holy Land. This collection keeps Christianity alive in this area made holy by the life, suffering, death and resurrection of our Lord, Jesus Christ.

Food Drive Today

To put your faith into action this Lenten season, consider the Hand'N'Hand food drive. Our food drive helps other OLG parishioners, focusing especially on children, senior citizens and the disabled. Please bring your non-perishables to the baskets at the back of the church. Hand'N'Hand also accepts monetary donations. The positive action of helping this ministry will increase your sense of belonging to our parish and should enhance your Lenten preparation for the joy of Easter.

Guideline for Fast and Abstinence for Good Friday

Catholics between the ages of 18 and 59 are obliged to fast on Ash Wednesday and Good Friday. In addition, all Catholics 14 years old and older must abstain from meat on Ash Wednesday, Good Friday and all the Fridays of Lent. Fasting as explained by the U.S. bishops means partaking of only one full meal. Some food (not equaling another full meal) is permitted at breakfast and around midday or in the evening—depending on when a person chooses to eat the main or full meal. Abstinence forbids the use of meat, but not of eggs, milk products or condiments made of animal fat. Abstinence does not include meat juices and liquid foods made from meat. Thus, such foods as chicken broth, soups cooked or flavored with meat, meat gravies or sauces, as well as seasonings or condiments made from animal fat are not forbidden. So it is permissible to use margarine and lard. Even bacon drippings which contain little bits of meat may be poured over lettuce as seasoning. No one should be scrupulous in this regard; failure to observe individual days of penance is not considered serious. Moral theologians remind us that some people are excused from fasting and/or abstinence because of sickness or other reasons. The Code of Canon Law and our bishops remind us of other works and means of doing penance; prayer, acts of self-denial, almsgiving and works of personal charity. Attending Mass daily or several times a week, praying the rosary, making the way of the cross, attending the parish evening of prayer service, teaching the illiterate to read, reading to the blind, helping at a soup kitchen, visiting the sick and shut-in and relieving an overworked mother by baby-sitting—all of these can be even more meaningful and demanding than simply abstaining from meat on Friday.

City of Saints Teen Conference

OLG Youth Ministry is organizing a group to go to the City of Saints Catholic Teen Conference, again this August 2-4 t UCLA. This event is a wonderful local, opportunity for young people to engage in their faith and leave empowered to live as saints within their communities. The conference will feature dynamic speakers, liturgical experiences, music, and more, set in an atmosphere where teens can learn about and experience the Eucharist and the beauty of the Catholic faith with its rich symbols and traditions. This is open to all high school teens, Class of 2019-Class of 2023-confirmed or not. But space with the OLG group is limited. Contact Tom Baumann by Friday, May 10 to get your registration and paperwork started. The cost is $240, and financial support is available based on family need.

Scholarship Sponsorships Needed

You can help our youth attend City of Saints Teen Conference by partially or fully sponsoring a scholarship. Our fee for this event is $240 per person. Your donation can help defray the cost for a teen whose family cannot afford this expense. If you are able to support a teen for this event, we will gratefully accept a donation of any amount. Checks can be made payable to OLG, with "City of Saints Scholarship" in the memo line.
