Fiesta Thank You's

A very special "Thank You" is sent out to everyone for making this years "FIESTA 2019" such a great success. Every year a group of dedicated, creative and very brave community volunteers gather together to plan, organize and motivate the coming Spring Event. Over the course of several months booths are planned, rides are ordered, volunteers gathered, Silent Auction gifts are sought, music acts are rehearsed, food vendors found and donations are solicited. The amount of hours expended are countless. There are really too many people to thank by name but we did want to mention Alejandra Chavola, Theresa Avila, Philip Warner, for their great leadership and vision. A special Thank You to Mrs. Beuder and all the teachers who donated their classrooms and their hours of manning the Ticket Booth, and the many volunteers who worked so hard in all of our game and food booths, and those who volunteered to sit in the Dunk Tank! Though the Fiesta is our communities biggest fund raiser of the year, its main purpose is to bring our community together in a fun, casual and safe environment. It is through countless volunteered hours of hard work that we can realize how unique and special OLG really is. Thank you to all those who made this weekend possible. We are still putting together the final figures of our parish Fiesta. Receipts are still coming in and as soon as we have a final report we will let you know. Once again, Thank You to everyone for all the hard work and the volunteer hours you had to give to make this parish event a great community builder and a financial success!

May Baptisms at Our Lady of Guadalupe

Our baptism classes are on the 2nd Sunday of every month at 7:00PM, in the parish hall. This class is for all parents and godparents who wish to have their baby baptized. You must fill out a registration form before attending the class. Our baptisms in English are held on the 3rd Sunday of every month at 1PM. For questions or concerns please call the parish office.

Happy Mothers Day

We wish all the mothers of our parish family a most happy day. We will be praying for all of our mothers during the next nine days. We thank our mothers, both living and deceased, for saying "yes" to the gift of life as they gave each of us birth. Though our mothers may not have been perfect, they still said "yes" which echoes the "Yes" of Mary. Let this be an inspiration to each of us. Happy Mother's Day! There is still time to enroll your Mom, living or deceased, in the Mother's Day Novena. Cards are available at the entrances of the church.

Respect for Life

Just as Jesus honored his mother throughout his life and even entrusted the disciple, John, with her care after His death, so should we proclaim our respect and love for Mary, His Mother, and all mothers, on this Mother's Day and every day.

New Day for Fr. Paul's Spiritual Direction: How to Pray

Fr. Paul's workshop on prayer from 7pm - 8:30PM in the Church, has moved from the 1st Monday of the month to the 3rd Sunday of the month, beginning this month. The next workshop will be on Monday May 20th.

Confirmation Date June 2

Bishop Sartoris will confer the Sacrament of Confirmation on our high school confirmation candidates on Sunday, June 2 at a special 3pm Mass. The candidates and sponsors need to arrive at 2pm for check-in on June 2. Also, the candidates and sponsors must attend the practice on Saturday, June 1, 10:30am-12:30pm in the church. Come Holy Spirit.

ASTORES CON OLOR A OVEJA FELICIDADES A TODAS LAS MADRES

Bendiciones para todas, las que han biológicamente han engendrado y las que lo han hecho por amor, desde el corazón, cuidando y entregándose de muchas maneras a otros para apoyarlos, bendiciones a todas.

Pastores con olor a oveja y sonrisa de padre. Todos recordamos las palabras que dijo el Papa Francisco en una de sus la homilias, ya, hace unos años. Dijo el Papa que él quería para su Iglesia curas con olor a oveja y sonrisa de padre, no pastores con cara de vinagre, ni pastores aburridos, ni pastores que huelen a perfume caro y te miran desde lejos y desde arriba. Es decir, que el Papa quiere que los curas seamos cercanos, sencillos y humildes, comprometidos con los problemas de la gente; no quiere curas que esperen, atrincherados en la sacristía o en el despacho, sino que salgan fuera y se impliquen y se compliquen directamente con los problemas del pueblo sencillo. El Papa Francisco no quiere esto por capricho, o por juego, sino porque sabe que así lo hizo Jesús, el Buen Pastor. Jesús no se refugió en el templo, o en la sinagoga, sino que recorrió los caminos de Galilea, predicando el reino de Dios, curando enfermos, acercándose con amor a las personas más marginadas y desprotegidas. Así lo indican sus parábolas sobre la oveja perdida, el hijo pródigo, su actitud ante la mujer pecadora, o, sin ir más lejos, las palabras que leemos hoy en este bello relato evangélico de san Juan, referido a Jesús como el Buen pastor.

Mis ovejas escuchan mi voz, y yo las conozco, y ellas me siguen, y yo les doy la vida eterna; no perecerán para siempre y nadie las arrebatará de mi mano. Que Jesús quiere ser el Buen Pastor no sólo de los curas, sino de todos los fieles cristianos, lo dudamos ninguno de nosotros, los cristianos; ahora bien, que nosotros, los cristianos, queramos ser de verdad ovejas de su rebaño y escuchemos su voz no es tan seguro. Porque es evidente que para que Jesús pueda ser realmente nuestro buen pastor, nosotros tenemos que desear ser ovejas suyas, es decir, escuchar su voz y seguirle. Porque Jesús quiere que le sigamos y escuchemos su voz como personas libres y conscientes, no como animales aborregados. Pidamos, pues, al Buen Pastor que todos los cristianos sigamos caminando en pos de sus pasos y que él siga siendo nuestro camino, nuestra verdad y nuestra vida.

Entonces Pablo y Bernabé dijeron sin contemplaciones: teníamos que anunciarles primero a ustedes la palabra de Dios; pero como la rechazan y no se consideran dignos de la vida eterna, sepan que nos dedicamos a los gentiles. Pablo y Bernabé, como todos los demás discípulos y apóstoles del Maestro, quisieron cumplir el mandato de Jesús, de predicar el evangelio hasta el extremo de la tierra. Sufrieron muchas persecuciones y fatigas a causa de su predicación, pero nunca desistieron y fueron capaces de sufrir y hasta de dar su vida antes que renunciar al cumplimiento del mandato del Señor. Cuando nosotros tengamos algún problema o contradicción por causa de nuestro comportamiento y de nuestro proceder cristiano, acordémonos de los apóstoles y primeros discípulos de Jesús, porque sabemos que ser ovejas del Buen Pastor, Jesús, supone, por nuestra parte, decisión, entrega y sacrificio.

Estos son los que vienen de la gran tribulación: han lavado y blanqueado sus vestiduras en la sangre del cordero...Y Dios enjugará las lágrimas de sus ojos. Estas palabras del Apocalipsis van dirigidas a una comunidad que estaba sufriendo persecución y muerte a causa de su fe. Habla de los mártires que ya estaban en el cielo, después de haber lavado y blanqueado sus vestiduras en la sangre del cordero. Estamos en tiempo de Pascua de Resurrección y debemos creer firmemente que también nosotros resucitaremos en los brazos de Dios si somos fieles a nuestro Maestro y Buen Pastor. Actuar en tiempos difíciles movidos por la esperanza en la Resurrección no es fácil, porque las potencias de este mundo tiran de nuestro cuerpo y nos incitan a vivir cómodamente aquí en la tierra. Pero si queremos ser buenas ovejas del Buen Pastor debemos saber que nuestra patria definitiva es el cielo, porque allí está él y hasta allí queremos seguirle. Ante el sufrimiento y el dolor sepamos que Dios siempre enjugará las lágrimas de nuestros ojos, si seguimos al Maestro, a nuestro Buen Pastor, hasta el final. Allí, en el cielo, ya no pasaremos hambre ni sed, sufrimiento, ni dolor, porque el primer mundo ya habrá pasado. Este es el principal mensaje que nos da el libro del Apocalipsis. Paz y Bien.

Feliz Día a todas las madres.

City of Saints August 2-4 Catholic Teen Conference at UCLA hosted by Archbishop Gomez and the Office of Religious Education

OLG Youth Ministry is organizing a group to go to the City of Saints Catholic Teen Conference again this August! This event is a wonderful, local opportunity for young people to engage in their faith and leave empowered to live as saints within their communities. The conference will feature dynamic speakers, liturgical experiences, music, and more, set in an atmosphere where teens can learn about and experience the Eucharist and the beauty of the Catholic faith with its rich symbols and traditions. This is open to all high school teens, Class of 2019-Class of 2023 – confirmed or not. But space with the OLG group is limited. It is not too late to contact Tom Baumann by Friday, May 10 to get your registration and paperwork started. The cost is $240, and financial support is available based on family need. Room and board is at UCLA dorms, and the Conference program takes place in Royce Hall. Check-in/registration begins at 5PM and Royce Hall doors open at 7PM. The event ends at 2PM on Sunday, August 4. Our OLG group plans to have organized carpools to and from the event. Contact Tom Baumann at (310) 406-4999 or youthministry@olgmail.org ASAP for information or to register with the OLG group.

Did you Know?

What risks are worth it for children?

In today's society, parents are often torn between protecting their children, and letting them experience life and even make mistakes. Safety is vitally important, but there is value in learning from experience and from mistakes, too. There may be times when parents wonder if they have gone too far in their efforts to safeguard children, perhaps inadvertently rendering them children less prepared to handle real-life situations. For help in discerning when learning from experience may be appropriate see the VIRTUS® article "Safety vs. Resilience in Childhood." For more information, visit <http://www.la-archdiocese.org/org/protecting/Pages/VIRTUS-Current-Online-Articles.aspx>.

Please in the generosity of your prayers this month would you remember to pray for the sick and the homebound of our parish who cannot celebrate the liturgies with us
