All Saints' Day & All Souls' Day

All Saints Day

Friday, November 1, 2019 we celebrate All Saints Day.

On all Saints Day we remember and celebrate the communion of Saints—our unity of all Saints both earth and heaven. It is our day, to be mindful of what we are called to be—SAINTS.

All Saints Day, is a Holy Day of Obligation. Our Masses will be at: 5:00PM Thursday, October 31st (English) 8:00AM, Friday, November 1st (English) and 7:00PM November 1st (Spanish) Please join us.

Looking to the Last Day

On Saturday, November 2, the Church remembers all who have walked the way of Christ and passed from this life. The readings all look to the last day, when we shall all rise from the dead and be reunited. The prophet Daniel announces words of warning and welfare. He cautions us against the judgment to come, but he also comforts us and assures us that all who live a life of virtue and justice will find life eternal. The reading from Romans reminds us that, because of Christ's passion, death, and resurrection and our entrance into that paschal mystery through baptism, we now share in the new life won by Christ. This recognition has repercussions: we need to live righteously now, that we might rise to life forever with Christ on the last day. In the Gospel Jesus pledges that all the Father has given him will not be lost. All the faithful will be raised to joy and live forever in the presence of God. Please join us for Mass on Saturday, November 2nd at 8AM in English As in the previous years, you are welcome to bring a picture of your lost loved one and place it on the altar.

Our Recently Departed

The Book of the Dead will be at the center of our parish worship place during the Novena for All Souls Day. Please take a moment and look through the book. This book reminds us all to pray for those who have gone home to the Father before us. November is the month of the faithful departed. Life, safety, and happiness with Christ are the blessings we beg from God as we pray for the departed. It is "a...hold and wholesome thought to pray for the dead..." (2Mac 12:45). The Letter to the Ephesians affirms that these blessings also come to us, the living."..."You are the light in the Lord. Live as children of Light" (Eph 5:8). In the Light we find every kind of goodness and truth, this is our prayer for all the faithful departed and for ourselves as well.

*Eternal rest grant unto them, O' Lord
And perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in Peace*

It is not too late to remember your deceased loved ones in The All Souls Novena that will begin Saturday, November 2 and conclude on Monday November 10. If you did not receive the envelopes for the Novena for All Souls Day, the envelopes can be found at the back of the church or at the parish office. Please take one and consider the need for the prayers for our faithful departed. Place your envelope in the collection basket, or you may bring your envelope to the parish office.

EL ORGULLOSO CON SU "YO" Y EL HUMILDE CON DIOS

Todos necesitamos de todos y vivimos de todos, aunque estemos inflados de orgullo y vanidad.-- Unas veces somos tan "farisaicos" que nos cuesta muy poco y casi nada traspasar los límites y ajustar cuentas con el mismo Dios sin percatarnos que todo nos viene de Él.--En otras ocasiones sale a relucir la humildad que llevamos dentro y optamos por ponernos al final del templo sacando de la maleta los más viejos y negativos recuerdos sin reflexionar que Dios hace tiempo que los olvidó.

--Aunque, ciertamente, hay otros tantos hermanos nuestros que se sitúan tan al fondo de la iglesia que parecen estar (más que ante Dios) jugando al escondite con el Espíritu Santo o, simplemente, cumpliendo para luego marchar cuanto antes para continuar viviendo sin más trascendencia.

Uno y otro, el orgulloso del humilde, se distinguen por algo en esta parábola que nos presenta Jesús: el primero hablaba desde la arrogancia y el segundo, en cambio, desde el corazón. Lo mismo, en una dirección u otra, nos podemos reflejar también nosotros:

*Si vivimos nuestra fe como un simple código de normas... somos fariseo

*Si nos sentimos sostenidos por la mano de Dios... somos publicano

*Si sacamos las medallas al mérito... somos fariseo

*Si buscamos en el trasfondo de todo lo que hemos realizado a Dios....somos publicano

*Si nos sentimos los mejores y los auténticos... somos fariseo

*Si intentamos vivir y pensar en Dios sin comparaciones... somos publicano

En cuántas ocasiones acudimos a la iglesia intentando buscar a Dios y, sin darnos cuenta, ponemos un espejo delante de nosotros para auto complacernos con la caridad que hicimos o con el ramillete de oraciones contabilizadas en el disco duro de nuestra memoria.

Dios, en cambio, saborea y disfruta con la naturalidad y espontaneidad de sus hijos. Sabe, mucho antes de que nos instalemos en su presencia, con que disfraces venimos y con qué traje deseamos salir de nuevo a la vida. Dios, que tiene de ingenio todo, va al fondo del corazón. Y en el corazón es donde El disfruta y goza con nosotros. En el corazón del creyente no existen las cuentas pendientes ni los reproches. En el corazón humilde es donde hemos de aprender a buscar y guardar la voz de un Dios que valora y potencia la humildad como una gran autopista para ir más deprisa a su encuentro.

Pidamos a Dios que ese "yo" que se siente seguro de sí mismo, que se cree mejor que todo el mundo, más perfecto en todo, más rico, más inteligente, más experto en la vid

Nuestra comunidad de fe ora por la sanación de todas las personas que han sido abusadas

Como miembros de la comunidad católica, cada uno de nosotros puede contribuir a la sanación de aquellos que han sido lastimados por el abuso, especialmente al recordar a las víctimas-sobrevivientes en sus oraciones. Pedimos a Dios por aquellos lastimados por alguien, ya sea en la iglesia, en la familia, en la escuela o en la comunidad, confiando en que la sanación es posible, y conscientes de que todos podemos trabajar para prevenir el abuso. Inspirados en la visión de una víctima-sobreviviente, la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles ha creado una tarjeta de oración e información como un símbolo palpable de compromiso y de apoyo a las personas necesitadas. Por favor únense en este esfuerzo y a nuestra esperanza compartida para que los recursos y oraciones en la tarjeta alcancen a los necesitados, llevándoles la luz sanadora de Cristo sobre los más oscuros lugares de su dolor.

El que se humilla
será
enaltecido

Did you Know

Our community of faith prays for the healing of all those who have been abused. As members of the Catholic community, each of us can contribute to the healing of those harmed by abuse, especially by remembering victim-survivors in our prayers. We pray for those harmed by someone, whether in church, family, school or community, confident that healing is possible, and mindful that we can all work to prevent further abuse. Inspired by the vision of a victim-survivor, the Archdiocese of Los Angeles has created a prayer and information card as a tangible symbol of outreach and support to those in need. Please join in this effort and our shared hope that the resources and prayer on the card will reach those in need to bring the healing light of Christ to the darkest places of pain.

Living God’s Word

We pray that God will give us the grace of humility when we pray, the ability to recognize who God is and who we are, to trust that God will give us when we most need, to be thankful for what we have received more than what we have achieved.

Please in the generosity of your prayers this month would you remember to pray for the sick and the homebound of our parish who cannot celebrate the liturgies with us
