Catholic Schools Week

We are bringing Catholic Schools Week to a close. Historically, Catholic Schools began as an instrument to teach our Catholic Faith to our children. At that time, public schools were teaching religion, often times a religion that was contrary to our Catholic Faith. While teaching of a faith based religion is not a part of public schools today, the values taught are not always Catholic. Catholic Schools are a wonderful way to pass our Catholic faith and values on to our young people. Our teachers attempt to educate the whole person: heart, body and spirit. Our Lady of Guadalupe School is now accepting registration for the next school year for grades Pre School, and TK through 8. Please help us to get the word out about our school. Please call the school (310) 372-7486 for more information.

Together In Mission 2020

Next weekend is Together in Mission "Commitment Sunday." Archbishop Gomez invites us to make our annual commitment to help those parishes and schools that need our help. If you have made a gift in the past, a letter should arrive in your home this week asking you to renew your support. You can return that pledge card via mail or make your pledge at ourmissionla.org/give

Many parishes and schools in our Archdiocese desire to do incredible ministry but simply can't afford it, instead using donation to keep lights on, making critical repairs, and paying insurance for employees. Some of the poorest parishes and schools worry they may have to close their doors, a decision that would affect thousands in areas where hope is typically needed most. But you have spoken up and for 26 years you've said the story isn't over. You have given faithfully in the name of hope, together with thousands of Catholics across our Archdiocese. You've said that every community deserves a thriving parish and school-and tens of thousands of families and children have benefitted from education, formation, community opportunities, and other ministry. Our parish goal for this year is $44,520.00

The Presentation of the Lord

Today's feast is both magnificent and mysterious: magnificent because the very first contemporaries of Jesus begin to recognize him as Christ, the anointed Savior of the world; mysterious, because this King is still a child, an obscure boy obedient to his earthly parents. The prophet Malachi—living and dying before the coming of Christ—points toward the arrival of the Messiah and encourages God's people to prepare themselves by living generous, holy lives. The Letter to the Hebrews—written after Jesus' ministry, death, and resurrection—renews the prophetic call to holiness, reminding us that the Lord will always help us: "Because he himself was tested through what he suffered, he is able to help those who are being tested." The Gospel reading overflows with examples of joyful men and women living God's call to holiness. Mary, Joseph, Simeon, and Anna show us, in their own ways, how to love Christ.

The Feast of St. Blaise

The blessing of throats couldn't come at a better time as Catholics cough their way through the winter months. But soon they will have a chance at healing. On Feb. 3, at the 8:00AM Mass, in honor of the feast day of St. Blaise, our church will hold the annual blessing to protect people against and heal them from throat ailments. Many adults have fond memories of this ceremony, when the priest places two blessed candles joined in the shape of a cross at each person's throat and says a prayer for their health. St. Blaise became the patron saint of throats after healing a boy choking on a fishbone.

Este domingo se celebra la fiesta de la "presentación" del Señor, popularmente le llamamos la fiesta de la candelaria, pero en realidad litúrgicamente es la Fiesta de la Presentación del Señor al templo, o sea Jesús como bebé a los 40 días de nacido fue llevado al templo para presentarlo y para la purificación de su Madre la Virgen María. El elemento de la luz por supuesto sigue presente como en Navidad Jesús es la luz del mundo, luz para las naciones, los pueblos que estaban en tinieblas han recibido una gran luz, eso es lo que refiere a la candelaria, Cristo Luz del mundo..

Jesús es el mensajero, Él es la esperanza para muchas naciones que estaban oprimidas, es una visión futura del profeta Malaquías, es como el cumplimiento del relato que escucharemos en el evangelio. Es una invitación a escuchar, poner atención al mensajero que habita cerca de nosotros.

Interesa especialmente el "mensajero de la alianza", porque es una constante de la teología profética, aunque tenga los tonos apocalípticos de esta que nos ocupa. Pensar que Dios ha de enviar a alguien para que restaure la Alianza es como empezar de nuevo, como si la Alianza del Sinaí va no tuviera valor. Este es uno de los motivos por lo que fueron rechazados los profetas. La Alianza no es algo que acontece sin el compromiso de un pueblo por la justicia y el proyecto de Dios. Si no se vive la Alianza, esta se ha roto por parte del pueblo... Pero Dios siempre está empeñado en rehacer la Alianza y el proyecto de salvación con su pueblo. Nos ha traído la salvación y ha hecho posible nuestra reconciliación con Dios, destruyendo el mal (el diablo), dice el texto. Y especialmente es digno de fe, porque ha sabido vivir nuestra misma vida, sin sentirse alejado del pueblo y de sus miserias.

Se ha de tener en cuenta que no era necesario que el niño fuera llevado al templo para cumplir con el precepto de esa ley de la purificación de la madre (cf Lv 12,1-8), porque lo de la presentación del niño no era algo requerido por la ley de Moisés. Se quiere, pues, mostrar que los padres de Jesús se atienen en todo a esa ley, y pretenden "consagrarlo al Señor" según lo que establecía un precepto (Ex 13,2.12.15), con el rescate del primogénito (Ex 13,13; 34,20); aunque Lucas no dice expresamente que se llevara a cabo ese rescate así. Lo importante era poner de manifiesto que los padres de Jesús querían incardinar a su hijo a todo aquello que era considerado como una vida de fidelidad a Dios cumpliendo ciertos preceptos.

No entramos en las palabras de Simeón a María, del signo de Jesús, bandera discutida, que habla de su historia concreta, de su predicación, de su experiencia de Dios, de sus ofertas de salvación a los pecadores. Y de la "espada" (cf Ez 14,17) de María, que es la espada de la palabra salvadora que lleva a la pasión. Sabemos que todo esto no ha podido formularse sino después de los acontecimientos de la Pascua. Porque, como todo el conjunto de Lc 1-2, esta es una escena programática que habrá de desarrollarse a lo largo de la vida de Jesús. Y no podemos olvidar que la historia concreta de Jesús es la historia de un Mesías rechazado. María, en ese momento, para Lucas, no solamente es una figura histórica, que lo es como madre que lleva a su hijo, sino que representa a la nueva comunidad que fiel a Dios, pasa desde su experiencia de la fidelidad a la ley a la experiencia de la fidelidad al Espíritu. Por eso la palabra de Jesús y su vida, es una espada de identidad para esta comunidad.

Nuestra misión es reconocer al Mesías siempre y en toda circunstancia, Él es el prometido, Zacarías quien esperaba los cumplimientos de las escrituras, proclama que Jesús es el Hijo de Dios y alaba a Dios con un cantico. "bendito Sea el Señor Dios de Israel porque ha visitado y redimido a su pueblo....." ese es el inicio de su cantico en San Lucas en el evangelio de hoy.

La importancia de establecer reglas

Como padres de familia, queremos que nuestros hijos nos vean como sus aliados y maestros, no solo como las personas que ponen las reglas. Pero algunas veces, las reglas son más efectivas, las reglas son simples y fáciles de recordar, y no dejan lugar a error. Cuando se trata de la seguridad de su hijo/a, las reglas son muy importantes. Y cuando se trata del cuerpo de su hijos o hijas, las reglas pueden ayudarles a entender cómo protegerse a sí mismos de los depredadores. Establecer reglas sobre quién puede ver o tocar sus cuerpos es una parte importante de la prevención del abuso sexual infantil.

“...they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord...” (Luke 2:22)

How seriously do you take being a Catholic? Is “being Catholic” something I just do when I attend Sunday Mass or attend one of my parish functions? It’s easy to be Catholic then, it’s harder to be Catholic when I am out in the world. Would someone recognize you as a Catholic by the way you act, dress, and talk? How do you present yourself to the Lord and to others?

Attention Young Adults

The OLG Young Adults would like to invite you to join them for Sunday Socials and Night Patrol. Sunday Socials are after the 6:30PM Mass on the 1st and 3rd Sunday’s of every month. Night Patrol is Adoration in the Church from 6 – 7 PM every Tuesday evening, followed by dinner. Like us on Facebook @OLGYA.HB and join our GroupMe chat to get involved in the conversation and the latest news; e.g. where the Sunday Socials and Night Patrol dinners will be. The link to join GroupMe can be found on the Facebook page. The mission is to foster an environment where Young Adults can grow in their faith, in their personal relationship with God, and with each other through ministry, fellowship.
