Lent is Coming! This year Lent begins with Ash Wednesday on February 26. Lent has been observed by Christians since the 4th Century. It is a time of reflection, penitence and spiritual renewal before Easter. Lent ends at midnight on Holy Saturday, the night before Easter Sunday. During Lent some Christians focus on giving up something. It is not absolutely necessary for the observation of Lent to give up a delicacy or a bad habit or an hour of sleep in the Lenten period, this should be a matter between a Christian and God. Some may decide to do something extra for their spiritual hindrance to the Spirit. Some may make a special sacrifice of some sort. And some may decide to improve their communication and fellowship with God by having special times of prayer throughout the day, or vow to worship in the church at every service held. The important thing is to make Lent a special time, a memorable time. A time so meaningful that it sets the tone for the rest of the entire year. At the very least it should be a time of sincere spiritual growth. Please watch the bulletin for a list of liturgical and devotional services at our church this Lent.

Fiesta is Coming !!!!!

The dates for Fiesta this year are MAY 2 & 3. It is not too early to start contemplating and praying on how you can help to make this the best fiesta ever. Our volunteers and parents are what make the Fiesta so successful each year. And everyone at OLG has some kind of gift for the Fiesta, be it time, talent or treasure.

A Note from Fr. Paul on Health Concerns During Mass

It has come to my attention that in times of flu and now the Coronavirus we all wish to be as safe as possible. Our Eucharistic Ministers and Priests will all be using hand sanitizer before distributing communion. If you do not feel comfortable receiving from the cup, it is ok not to do so. Although it is encouraged to receive under both species, the full Body, Soul and Divinity of Jesus is present when you receive in only one species. Some wish to hold hands, and certainly there is the kiss of peace. If you prefer to not do either of these, don't feel the pressure to do so, and I ask the understanding of all our parishioners that if one of your pewmates wishes to not hold hands, or gives some other sign of peace. Also feel free to not bless yourself with holy water on the way in or out of church if you are not comfortable with doing so. Thank you.

Important Message from your Parish Council

The Parish Council wants to hear from you! Please visit our website to see the new parish pastoral vision, 3- year plan and sign up to help be a part of making the vision a reality. Please visit the website to learn more:

Last weekend, Archbishop Gomez invited all Catholics to make their annual commitment to 2020 Together in Mission Appeal. This year, our parish has been asked to raise $44,520.00. Any excess of our goal that we collect is returned to our parish. Last year we exceeded our goal by $12,659! Thank you for your generosity. That money went towards our capital campaign. This year we will be doing the same if we exceed our goal. So please let's all work together for these two worthy causes. If you and your family have not had the opportunity to make your pledge, I ask you to complete a pledge card found in the pews, or make your pledge online by visiting ourmissionla.org/give. Your gifts to Together in Mission ensure that every Catholic living in the Archdiocese has a parish to celebrate their faith and access to Catholic school education. You are living your faith through your actions when you support Together in Mission.

¡NO TODO VALE!

Continuamos con el sermón del Monte, y hay una serie de recomendaciones y prescripciones para todos, claro recordemos que muchos de los seguidores de Jesús venían del judaísmo y por lo tanto deben aprender la doctrina de Cristo, el amor al prójimo es con hechos y no solo con palabras.

Dice una conocida sentencia: “Una cosa no es justa por el hecho de ser ley. Ha de ser ley porque es justa”. El hombre, que anhela su propia libertad (sin más límites que la propia conciencia) está inclinado a rechazar todas aquellas normas, o mínimas pautas, que vayan en contra de esa idea: yo soy dueño de mi vida, de mi historia y de todo lo que pienso y realizo. ¿O no es así? ¿No hay una práctica rebeldía del hombre contemporáneo a todo lo que se le impone como ley?

El evangelio de este domingo VI nos viene muy muy bien. Frente al “todo vale” que, en cierta manera nos propaga el mundo, Jesús nos dice el “pero yo les digo”.

-Frente al aborto (porque el ser humano es dueño de su propio cuerpo), el Señor nos recuerda que –el 5º mandamiento– sigue tan vigente como lo conoció y escuchó Moisés: “¡No matarás! “Y que, la vida, viene de Dios y, sólo Dios, puede disponer de ella.

-Frente al olvido o la marginación de los más mayores (cuando la sociedad afirma que ya han cumplido), el Señor nos trae a la memoria el 4º punto de lo revelado por Dios en el Monte Sinaí “honrarás y respetarás a tus padres”.

-Frente a la opulencia (en contraste escandaloso con los países más pobres), en este día de Manos Unidas que lucha por el desarrollo de los pueblos más desfavorecidos y hambrientos, el Señor nos lleva al segundo mandamiento: “amarás al prójimo como a ti mismo”.

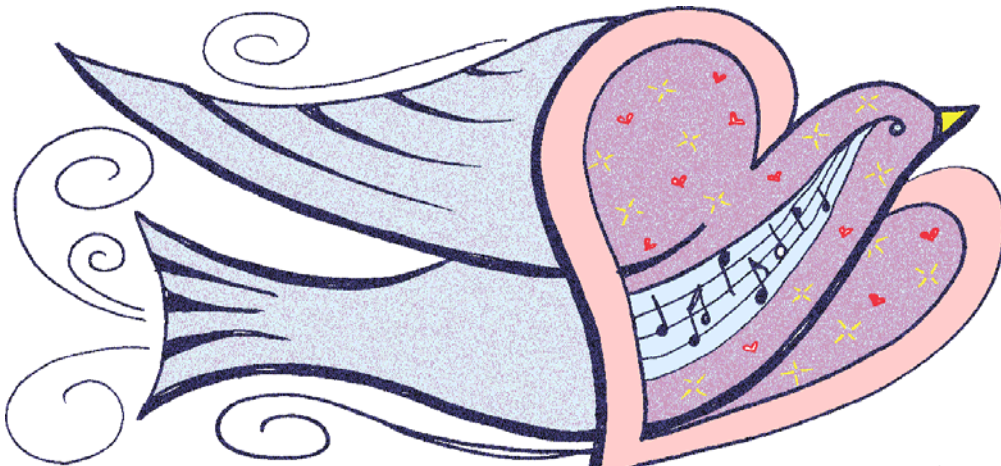

-Frente al intento de absolutizar leyes y normas que siendo indignas se exigen a todas las personas sin derecho a objeción de conciencia (como lo reclamo el Papa Benedicto XVI), Jesús nos recuerda que, sólo Dios, es digno de ser adorado y de ser tenido como suprema ley a favor del hombre.

La Palabra de Dios, sus leyes, no son ningún adorno para la humanidad. Es la constatación de un hecho real: muchos de los que creemos en el Señor no tenemos orientada suficientemente, y con fortaleza cimentada, nuestra vida en el Reino de Jesús. Dios, y es así, no es ningún adorno: si su Ley fuera cumplida muchos dramas del mundo serían superados.

Jesús no quiere esclavos de su Reino. Hay un dicho que dice algo así “la letra con sangre entra”. La ley del Señor, desde el momento en que está sustentada en el amor, requiere discípulos libres (no obligados), con luz propia (no con imitaciones), con sal y picante (no derretidos o vencidos). A nadie se nos obliga a creer y, por lo tanto, cumplir la voluntad de Dios, esperar en El y en sus promesas nos lleva a la siguiente conclusión: vivir según Dios es un gran regalo. Un privilegio que el Señor nos recuerda en el evangelio que acabamos de escuchar.

Cristo que sabe cómo se está con Dios metido en el corazón, desea para nosotros lo mismo: la felicidad auténtica. ¿Y cómo se alcanza? Sirviéndole con alegría y con prontitud, con entusiasmo y con diligencia, con perfección y con humildad.

Iba un peregrino camino de Santiago en España (Compostela) y, en un anochecer, mirando hacia las estrellas preguntó: “Señor; ¿qué quieres de mí? Vivo según tu Palabra y camino por tus sendas. Te busco...y no sé si acabo de encontrarte. Una voz, desde lo más profundo del silencio le contestó: “te quiero a Ti”. Eso es para cada uno de nosotros. TE QUIERO A TI.

Ignatians West is looking for a few good people!

Are you a mature adult with a bit of free time? Your lifetime of experience can be turned into service for others. Ignatians West will match your interests and talents with the needs of children, adults and seniors in a variety of non-profit settings. Volunteers serve in schools, food pantries, hospitals and social service centers 1 or 2 days a week. In addition to service, Ignatians West volunteers meet monthly to reflect in the Ignatian tradition. This Jesuit affiliated ministry invites you to assist those in need, work for a more just society, care for the earth and grow deeper in your faith. The benefits are priceless! Check us out at www.ignatianswest.org or on Facebook. You can make a difference in the life of another! For further information contact Anne Hansen 310-338-2358 or ahansen@ignatianswest.org

Did you Know?

Parents sometimes think of playgrounds as “drop zones” for their kids — keep an eye or an ear out, but otherwise settle in on a bench while your child burns off energy. Nearly 170,000 children were injured on playgrounds in 2019, and a few moments of careful attention could keep your child from joining those ranks. When you get to a playground, check out the surfaces underneath the equipment, especially equipment that allows children to jump or hang from it. The ground surface should be soft and shock absorbent. Check equipment for visible dangers — loose or missing pieces, sharp angles, broken supports, etc.

“For I tell you, unless your righteousness exceeds that of the scribes and Pharisees, you will never enter the kingdom of heaven.” (Matthew 5:20)

The scribes and Pharisees lived according to the letter of the law, and they used this to elevate themselves above the other people. Jesus is clear – it’s the love that you have in your heart that will get you to heaven. Simply following church rules out of obligation, not love, does not put you on the path to heaven. Attending Mass on Sunday and then gossiping about a fellow parishioner on the parking lot is an example of a modern day Pharisee.

Hand 'N' Hand Monthly Food Drive Today!!!

Our monthly Food Drive is TODAY. This food drive helps OLG parishioners in need focusing especially on children, senior citizens, and the disabled. Please bring your non-perishable food donations and place them in the baskets at the back of the church. We also accept monetary donations and checks made our to Hand’N’Hand. Thank you for your generosity in helping member of OLG parish. May God continue to bless you.

Please in the generosity of your prayers this month would you remember to pray for the sick and the homebound of our parish who cannot celebrate the liturgies with us
