Greetings, From Fr. Paul

On this first weekend of going forward with public Masses with restrictions to prevent the spread of disease, I want to thank you for your patience and understanding as we open up slowly and safely. This first weekend we currently only have two Sunday Masses (with a possibility still that we might add one more if we get enough volunteers trained in time). Please be assured we will be offering more, as soon as possible. I do hope we can even get to a point where everyone does have the opportunity to attend Mass at least one day a week. Many of you have made wonderful and creative suggestions, and we are considering all of them. Please continue to use the Mass registration page, to find the latest Mass offerings, to register for Masses or cancel your reservation, and to give us feedback and suggestions. The Mass schedule for next weekend is still to be determined, but registrations will begin again at 7AM Wednesday Morning. Registration for daily Masses continue to be open at Noon the day before.

Thank You!

Fr. Paul

The Feast of St. Anthony

The Feast of St. Anthony is Saturday – June 13th. St. Anthony of Padua is one of the Catholic Church's most popular saints. Saint Anthony of Padua, patron saint of lost and stolen articles, was a powerful Franciscan preacher and teacher. He's typically portrayed holding the child Jesus—or a lily—or a book—or all three—in his arms. Many people give alms to St. Anthony Bread in thanksgiving to God for blessings received through the prayers of St. Anthony. St. Anthony of Padua's life is what every Christian's life is meant to be; a steady courage to face the ups and downs of life, the call to love and forgive, to be concerned for the needs of others, to deal with crisis great and small, and to have our feet solidly on the ground of total trusting love and dependence on God. Pray for the intercession of St. Anthony and then be generous to the poor. St. Anthony, the wonderful worker, pray for us.

Saludos,

En este primer fin de semana de iniciar con misas públicas con restricciones para prevenir la propagación de la enfermedad, quiero agradecerles por su paciencia y comprensión a medida que abrimos lentamente y con seguridad. Este primer fin de semana solo tendremos dos misas dominicales (con la posibilidad de que podamos agregar una más si conseguimos tener suficientes voluntarios capacitados a tiempo). Tengan la seguridad de que ofreceremos más lo antes posible. Espero que podamos llegar a un punto en el que todos tengan la oportunidad de asistir a misa al menos un día a la semana. Muchos de ustedes han hecho sugerencias maravillosas y creativas, y las estamos considerando todas. Sigán utilizando la página de registro de misas, para encontrar las misas que se ofrecerán y registrarse en su misa o cancelar su reserva, y para darnos su opinión y sugerencias. El horario de misas para el próximo fin de semana aún no se ha determinado, pero las inscripciones comenzarán nuevamente a las 7 de la mañana del miércoles. Las inscripciones para las Misas diarias comenzarán al mediodía del día anterior.

¡Gracias!

Special Prayer Requests from Archbishop Gomez

Let us pray together for the soul of George Floyd, and for his family. And let us pray for all those who are working to put an end to racial injustice in our society.

Let us entrust the troubles in our world and the troubles in our lives to Mary, who is the mother of God, the mother of the Church, and the mother of every one of us.

May she help us always to hear the voice of God in our lives and to follow the path of nonviolence and peacemaking in this challenging moment.

TRINIDAD SANTA.

Paz y Bien. Es la fiesta de la Santísima Trinidad, hemos terminado tiempo Pascual, esta es la semana X del tiempo Ordinario. Pero Cristo sigue con la misma fuerza que siempre invitándonos a entrar en su misterio de salvación. Este domingo es especial muchos están alegres porque algunas Iglesias están abriendo sus puertas, siempre han estado abiertas porque cada uno de nosotros, cada barrio, familia es una iglesia y esas iglesias humanas son imágenes de la santa trinidad.

Las lecturas de hoy van directamente a un punto esencial, El Amor, La comunión la unidad. Si lo vemos desde la teología, la Santísima Trinidad es un solo Dios que, teniendo una sola naturaleza, son tres Personas que se despliegan en la Historia de la Salvación. La experiencia de Moisés con Dios es del Dios que se queda, acompañándolo, cuidándolo, iluminándolo. Ese es el Dios que debemos experimentar y vivir, el Dios que camina conmigo para introducirme a la salvación, no para castigarme, sino para animarme a caminar cada día aun con mis imperfecciones. No simplemente va de paso, sino que viene a “visitar”. Se presenta revelándose él mismo con una invocación que, sin duda, se había repetido mucho como confesión de fe en Yahvé.

LA Santa trinidad consiste, básicamente, en que Dios Padre creó el mundo, pero este cayó en el pecado debido a que el ser humano no hizo un buen uso de su libertad; por ello Dios Padre envió a su Hijo para anunciar el camino de la salvación y para vencer al pecado muriendo en la Cruz y resucitando a una vida nueva; y después, el Padre y el Hijo, como fruto de su amor, enviaron su Espíritu para hacerse presente en medio del mundo –y dentro de nuestro corazón–, ayudándonos a caminar hacia la resurrección. La Santísima Trinidad es una experiencia de amor, unidad, comprensión, ayuda mutua, no competencia entre ellos. Creo que este punto al mundo de hoy nos viene muy bien reflexionar de acuerdo a como vivo yo, mi experiencia con Dios, pero muy importante la experiencia con los demás.

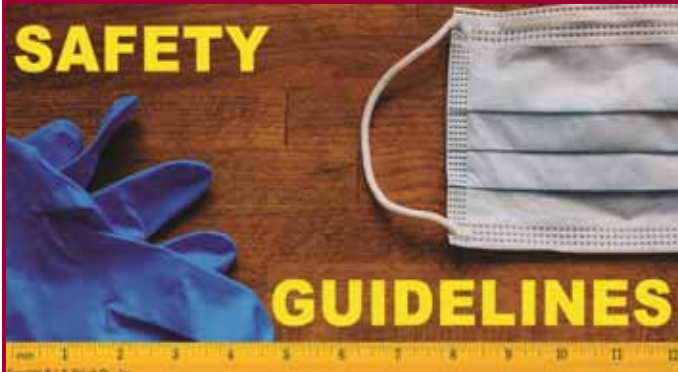

La segunda lectura nos interpela acerca de nuestro trato con los demás, habla de animarnos unos a otros y de buscar la felicidad, felicidad que no es ausencia de problemas, es la paz y la felicidad aun en medio de las situaciones de conflicto y dificultad. Y sabemos, con el Evangelio según san Juan, que Jesús no fue enviado por el Padre para juzgarnos sino para salvarnos, por ello murió por nosotros en la Cruz, es el Dios que quiere quedarse, que nos acompaña. Y Jesús nos dice que quien cree en Él se salva. Obviamente, no se refiere a creer superficialmente, como quien se cree lo que escucha en un programa de televisión, sino a creer en Él profundamente, haciéndolo vida, siendo coherente con el Evangelio. Y eso sólo se consigue cuando compartimos nuestra fe con el resto de la Iglesia.

Hoy es la oportunidad de ver nuestra relación familiar con un ejemplo de amor, ayuda, misericordia, de ánimo, fortaleza y paz. Serán nuestras relaciones familiares sanas y espirituales? La invitación es para todos, revisémonos y busquemos el camino que lleva a Dios, pero con los demás y en la esperanza del bien por todos. Paz y Bien.

¿Sabías?

No tenga temor de empezar una conversación sobre COVID-19 con sus hijos

Si es posible, escoja un momento cuando sus hijos quieran platicar, quizá durante la cena. Pregúnteles sobre lo que ellos ya saben y qué preguntas y preocupaciones tienen sobre el COVID-19. Cada uno reacciona de distinta manera, pero las preguntas de sus hijos puede guiar la discusión. Escuche y responda las preguntas con hechos, en una forma en que ellos entiendan. Si usted no sabe la respuesta a las preguntas, sea honesto/a. Déjeles saber que hay muchos rumores e información falsa y que usted les ayudará a conocer los hechos. Si es apropiado para la edad de sus hijos, también puede mostrarles cómo buscar las respuestas en un sitio web confiable. Los mejores lugares para aprender sobre el COVID-19 son los Centros de Control y Prevención de Enfermedades (CDC, por sus siglas en inglés) y la Organización Mundial de la Salud. Para obtener más consejos, puede leer el artículo en inglés, “How to talk to your kids about COVID-19” (Cómo hablar con sus hijos sobre el COVID-19) <https://www.mayoclinic.org/es-es/diseases-conditions/coronavirus/in-depth/kids-covid-19/art-20482508>.

We must always remember that in the sight of God, the gift is not as important as the giver. The spirit in which we give is what counts. We give out of hearts full of love and gratitude, we give generously, we give prayerfully. Thus our gifts and our lives are acceptable unto the Lord.

Enroll your Father In Our Father's Day Novena

Jesus, our most loving Redeemer, came to enlighten the world with His teaching and example. It was His Will to spend the greater part of His life in humble obedience to Mary and Joseph in the poor home of Nazareth. In this way He sanctified that Family which was to be an example for all Christian families.

As the foster-father of Jesus, St. Joseph stands in close relation to the Son of God, the Fountain of all holiness. St. Joseph served Jesus with a singular love: one of great unselfishness, without any regard to self-interest, but not without sacrifices. He did not toil for himself, but he seemed to be an instrument intended for the benefit of others, to be put aside as soon as it had done its work, for he disappeared from the scene once the childhood of Jesus had passed.

To honor all fathers we are offering a Novena of Nine Holy Masses that will begin on Father's Day, June 21, 2020. To have your father, or that of a loved one, entered on the list of those we pray for, please fill out the Father's Day Novena reply form. Found on our website ourladyofguadalupechurch.org If you wish to have more than one person prayed for, simply add their names in the spaces provided so that we may also include them in the Father's Day Novena. You may also request a card to be sent on this form.

The Most Holy Trinity

Throughout the liturgical cycle of Sundays and seasons, there are certain days that invite us to focus on particular aspects of our faith. Today is such a day, when we celebrate the solemnity of the Most Holy Trinity. On this Sunday after Pentecost, we reflect on the mystery of our Triune God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit. From the moment of creation, through the encounter of Moses with God on the mountain, through Christ's life, death, and resurrection, with the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, our understanding and appreciation of God's very life has unfolded and deepened. Jesus came into the world to make God's life and love known, the love of God, Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, the love of God that brings us peace.

God who traveled before and behind the Israelites in their journey from slavery to freedom, surround and support the men and women working in your healing ministry today. Never leave them, comfort them, and keep them well. Give them the strength to care for those who are sick and dying as well as the strength to receive help from others. Be with their families of all who serve. Send your peace for their anxieties, joy for their fears, hope for their despair, and light for their darkness. We pray in the confidence of your love. Amen.

Dios que viajó antes y detrás de los israelitas en su viaje de la esclavitud a la libertad, rodea y apoya a los hombres y mujeres que trabajan en tu ministerio de sanidad hoy. nunca los deje, consuélalos y manténgalos bien. Dales la fuerza para cuidar a los enfermos y moribundos, así como la fuerza para recibir ayuda de otros.

Estar con sus familias de todos los que sirven. Envía tu paz por sus ansiedades, alegría por sus miedos, esperanza por su desesperación y luz por su oscuridad. Oramos en la confianza de tu amor. Amén.
