Be a Movie Producer for OLG! Livestream Volunteers Needed

Since just about the beginning of the COVID-19 restrictions, Christine and Miguel Ruiloba have been designing and running our live stream video. I want to send a huge thank you to them! I have had much feedback about how good our livestreams are with the graphics, and the different camera angles, and the sound quality. Now that they are experts, and since we are having more Masses, they have additionally offered to train volunteers to do this new ministry. If you are interested in running the live stream system at any of our Masses, please contact Christine Ruiloba at audiovisual@olgmail.org. She will teach you until you are comfortable setting up the equipment and cameras, operating the control panel during the Mass selecting the video overlays and camera angles, and then putting the equipment away after Mass.

Did You Know

Tips for keeping calm and parenting during stressful times. We are living in unprecedented times, and many parents are stretched to capacity. The added stress of pandemic living can make it hard to parent calmly and effectively when children are acting out, but it's important to remember that children are also going through a huge period of change right now. Instead of reacting in anger, try these ideas to keep your cool. Talk to a friend – many people are suffering from a lack of physical community, so reach out by phone or text. Pray together as a family, asking for patience, cheerfulness, and whatever other virtues you need to get you through the day. Set an example of forgiveness with your children — ask for it when you need it and grant it when they do. For more tips, get a copy of the VIRTUS® article, “Say it on repeat: I am going to keep my calm!” at

It is a cause of great joy to help you to baptize your child (or children) into the Catholic Church, especially here at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. This is an important step of your faith, and the beginning of your promise to raise your child in the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church. During this COVID times, we offer virtual classes (via Zoom) for infant baptisms (ages birth to 6 years old) on the second Wednesday of each month in English, with the first class on July 8, 2020 from 7-8:30pm. Please contact our team at baptism@olgmail.org for a registration form and more information. If your child (or children) are over the age of 6 years old - our team will provide you with additional information on the baptismal preparation process.

Vengan a mí, todos los que están fatigados y agobiados por la carga y yo les daré alivio”.

Este domingo la palabra de Dios nos invita al reconocimiento de la presencia de Dios en la vida diaria de nosotros, en nuestras alegrías, tristezas, angustias, éxitos, fracasos, en todo debemos ir hacia Él y acogernos a su invitación, vengan a mí.

El verano para muchos es la mejor época del año, con más horas de luz que nos permiten tener un poco más de diversión o actividad cada día. Sin embargo, los problemas no toman vacaciones y las preocupaciones que nos agobian de igual forma. Jesús sabe muy bien lo que es llevar cargas demasiadas pesadas, y conoce bien el sufrimiento y la angustia. Él sabe lo que es perdonar al enemigo, cambiar la derrota por la victoria e incluso ha experimentado la propia muerte. Para aquellos que sienten que el trabajo no tiene ningún propósito, Jesús tiene muchas historias para contar sobre sus tres años de que parecía que nadie valoraba, seguido por la traición. Todo esto sin mencionar XX siglos de una Iglesia que no siempre ha sido muy fiel. En Jesús, encontramos un lugar en donde descansar nuestra carga.

El Papa Francisco, desde sus primeras horas como Obispo de Roma, no ha dejado de sorprendernos con gestos y palabras que nos hablan de cercanía y acogida; que nos transmiten, sin confusión, la opción radical que ha de tener la Iglesia por los pobres. Su lenguaje, llano pero profundo, lo entendemos todos porque está sintonizado con el alma del pueblo sin caer en los desagradables populismos. Nos toca el alma y nos emociona porque habla desde el corazón. Uno de los últimos ha sido el de orar solo ante una enorme y vacía plaza de San Pedro en la etapa más dura del confinamiento por el coronavirus. Su cercanía y sintonía con el pueblo “huele a Reino”.

Es todo eso lo que hace que pensemos siempre que Dios nos sigue llamando a vivir la Salvación aquí en la tierra, en la verdad, honestidad y ayuda mutua. El Evangelio de hoy es precisamente una llamada a vivir la revolución de lo sencillo como un camino ineludible para penetrar en la profundidad de la revelación de Dios. Son varias las ocasiones en que Jesús pone como condición para conocer el misterio del amor de Dios o para entrar en el Reino el tener un corazón sencillo: “Si no se hacen como niños no entrarán en el Reino de Dios” o, “te doy gracias Padre porque esto se lo has revelado a los sencillos y no a los sabios”. Y lo que revela el Padre a los sencillos es su ser mismo: “... nadie conoce al Hijo más que el Padre, y nadie conoce al Padre sino el Hijo, y aquel a quien el Hijo se lo quiera revelar”. Insisto que la sencillez no son simples signos, es una actitud y un valor que ayuda a disponer nuestros corazones y nuestra mente para abrirnos a la revelación de Dios y para dejarnos sorprender por un misterio que nos trasciende y que, aunque tengamos toda la ciencia del mundo, siempre nos desbordará pues solo es accesible por el acto generoso de la comunicación de un Dios que se quiere revelar. Solo quienes logran vencer la tentación de la arrogancia, que se saben frágiles y limitados son capaces de estar abiertos a la novedad de un Evangelio que es siempre nuevo. Y que somos limitados, que nos lo diga el Covid-19 que, desde su pequeñez, nos ha puesto en jaque y ha puesto en evidencia nuestra vulnerabilidad.

Dice Jesús: “Te alabo, Padre, porque has mostrado a los sencillos las cosas que ocultaste a los sabios y entendidos”. Unámonos a los esfuerzos que se están haciendo en la Iglesia para vivir desde la sencillez y la normalidad para que, una vez más, el Señor alabe al Padre por revelar su vida a los sencillos.

Tantas cosas que aprender y vivir, es por eso que tenemos que dejar las cargas y acercarnos a El. Es la Verdad, El Camino y la Vida. Paz y Bien.

REDISCOVER YOUR MARRIAGE ~

Thousands of couples in need of a marriage "tune-up" have successfully improved their marriages by completing this successful program. Married couples of any faith are welcome. For questions or to register, make a confidential call to 909-900-5465 or visit HelpOurMarriage.org.

Jesus tells us in today’s Gospel that he is “meek and humble of heart.” Yet just a few lines before this, he says that he is equal to his Father, the almighty God. So how can the Son of God be both meek and mighty?

For Jesus, being meek does not mean letting people push him around. If he were meek in that sense, he could not have thrown the money-changers out of the temple. Jesus’ meekness meant doing the will of God completely. The challenge for us comes in his words “learn from me.” We must learn to do God’s will as completely as Jesus did.

First, it means that we do all that God wants of us. We cannot pick and choose what we want to do and what we want to ignore. If some things seem too difficult or painful for us, we may need more faith in Jesus’ ability to make the burden easy. For example, sometimes we may hear Jesus’ command to love one another and reserve the right to love whom we choose. Or we may reserve the right to decide which teachings of the Church we will follow. But doing God’s will completely means doing it without reservation.

Second, we may try to do all that God asks, but give up if something becomes too difficult. We may say we forgive someone, for example, but when they reject that forgiveness, we become even angrier. Or we may tire of being patient with someone and be verbally hurtful. Or maybe we agree to help on a parish project but quit when someone disagrees with us. We can learn from Jesus how to do each part of God’s will to completion, as Jesus did all the way to the cross.

So how is the Son of God humble? True humility means acknowledging who we are and what we can do. Jesus is simply being humble when he says that he is equal to the Father. So too, we are humble when we do not hide the fact that we are children of God and brothers and sisters of Jesus. Instead of a false modesty that claims “I’m not good enough to follow all of God’s commands,” it takes true humility to accept that we can do God’s will because the Spirit is with us to help us.
