*My Jesus,
I believe that You are present in the Most Holy Sacrament.
I love You above all things,
and I desire to receive You into my soul.
Since I cannot at this moment receive You sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my heart.

Never permit me to be separated from You.
Amen.*

Un mensaje del p. Carlos

Las Buenas Respuestas mantendrán viva nuestra Salvación.

San Mateo continúa ofreciéndonos una serie de elementos para la reflexión personal, comunitaria y familiar. Todavía es tiempo en el que podemos salvarnos de acuerdo a las parábolas y lecturas. Hoy estamos ante una llamada verdaderamente materna para buscar a Dios en nuestra vida, porque Él no es como lo imaginamos; actúa ciertamente con misericordia. Es verdad que no siempre se ha presentado así a Dios en la teología del Antiguo Testamento, sino más bien, negativamente. Pero este texto profético debe poner en evidencia ese tipo de teología. En este caso, el profeta quiere ser escandaloso para sus contemporáneos que piensan que Dios es terrible, alejado y justiciero. Los caminos del Señor, es verdad, no son los de los hombres; ni sus planes son como los nuestros. De ahí que el profeta exhorte a buscar al Señor para salir de la situación de opresión en el destierro. Un nuevo "éxodo" está por llegar, es decir, un nuevo camino de liberación. Un nuevo camino para nuestra familia o para mi vida personal, la invitación es busquen al Señor porque todavía es tiempo, en el Evangelio veremos como El Señor sale a buscarnos tantas veces, no quiere que nos perdamos. Dios no huye, ni se esconde, ni "pasa" de su pueblo o de cada uno de nosotros. Porque usa la gran compasión. Por eso merece la pena buscar al Señor.

Hoy con San Pablo nos podemos animar a esa confianza y seguridad de que nunca dejare a Dios , porque Cristo ya me salvo, él ha tenido y tiene la experiencia de lo que es "vivir en Cristo", y la muerte le abre una puerta a la vida que nadie le podrá arrebatarse. Este es uno de los pasajes de Pablo que más importancia tienen para la teología de la muerte y la resurrección. Y especialmente de lo que es Cristo Jesús para Pablo y de lo que significa para la vida y la muerte de todos nosotros.

La Parábola usada por san Mateo nos ofrece la comparación con los obreros de la viña, una de las más significativas en el ámbito de la exposición que Jesús hacía para exponer el misterio del Reino de Dios, cómo debía hacerse presente, cómo participaba Dios mismo en este acontecimiento que afecta a la historia y a cada una de las personas que acogen su mensaje. Es una parábola que recuerda, en su resultado final, algunos aspectos a la conocida en Lc 15 como la del hijo pródigo. En realidad, se quiere hablar de la misma persona, de Dios, bien como un padre que espera a su hijo y le ofrece misericordia, bien como patrón de una viña que busca obreros durante todo el día. Los elementos intermedios, las horas, no deben distraernos del momento culminante en el que se quiere poner de manifiesto que, precisamente en el Reino de Dios, lo decisivo, como es la salvación de los hombres, no funciona con los criterios de este mundo. La narración comienza con un arreglo de Jesús con sus oyentes, como diciendo, vale la pena dar el sí, vale la pena entrar en su viña, la invitación está dada y la oportunidad abierta.

La palabra de Dios dice, "tus caminos, no son mis caminos", "mis planes no son tus planes". La misericordia de Dios es más grande que nuestros pecados y, si nosotros nos arrepentimos y sabemos pedir perdón, el Señor siempre nos va a perdonar. Los caminos de Dios son distintos de nuestros caminos y sus planes distintos de nuestros planes.

Paz y Bien.

Did You Know?

Consider setting up a “classroom” for safe internet use

If your child’s school distributed iPads or tablets to help with distance learning this fall, consider setting up a designated place in your home for your child to use these devices. Knowing what your child is doing online is made significantly easier if he or she is using a device in the kitchen, or family room, where you can periodically check in. While the school may have installed basic content filtering software and limited access protections, parents should review the device protections before letting children use them. For more information, visit <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Considere instalar un “salón de clases” para el uso seguro de internet

Si la escuela de su hijo/a distribuyó iPads o tabletas para ayudar en su educación a distancia este otoño, considere crear un lugar asignado en su casa donde su hijo/a use sus aparatos. Saber lo que su hijo/a está haciendo en línea se vuelve significativamente más fácil si él o ella está usando el aparato en la cocina, o en el salón familiar, un lugar abierto donde usted lo/la pueda supervisar frecuentemente. Aunque la escuela pueda haber instalado software para filtrar contenido básico y protecciones de acceso limitadas, los padres de familia deben revisar las protecciones del aparato antes de dejar que los niños lo usen. Para obtener más información, visite <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

OLG SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school. The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

The Social Justice Ministry invites you to join its book club to read and discuss “Just Mercy” by Bryan Stevenson

Bryan Stevenson was a young lawyer when he founded the Equal Justice Initiative, a legal practice dedicated to defending those most desperate and in need: the poor, the wrongly condemned, and women and children trapped in the farthest reaches of our criminal justice system. One of his first cases was Walter McMillian, a man who was sentenced to death for a notorious murder he insisted he didn't commit. The case drew Bryan into a web of conspiracy, political machination, and legal brinkmanship—and transformed his understanding of mercy and justice forever.

Just Mercy is an unforgettable account of an idealistic, gifted young lawyer's coming of age, a moving window into the lives of those he defended, and an inspiring argument for compassion in the pursuit of true justice.

The Social Justice Ministry's first meeting will occur from 6 to 7 p.m. on October 1, 2020, depending on the interest and group size. It plans to meet weekly or every other week. For questions and interest, please email Jan Vega at parish_council@olgmail.org.

OLG's Parish Food Drive is Today

This weekend is the monthly Parish Food Drive. We continue to aid our neighbors. Since mid-March, we have more than doubled the number of people we serve. As for donations, we welcome any food you can give. We can always use protein: peanut butter, canned meats, beans, and rice, soups, and stews. Please bring your non-perishable donations to mass this weekend, or place them in the bin in front of the church. If you are in need of help, please call Tom Baumann at (310) 372-7077.

Could This Be Your Ministry?

The OLG Parish Finance Council (PFC) is looking for a few volunteers to contribute their time, talent, and treasure to help OLG continue to prosper for years to come. General responsibilities include reviewing and advising the Pastor and School Principal in Parish financial and strategic planning. We welcome folks with diverse business backgrounds as is currently represented by our team of investment, accounting, finance, banking, engineering, law, and project management professionals. We meet once per month with some follow-ups from time to time. And yes... these meetings are serious, but a lot of fun, too! If you're interested in joining us, please reach out to Carlos Vega at uscvega@yahoo.com or phone 310.493.5395. God bless!

St. Jerome

Join OLG's "Scripture Faith Sharing" Group

St. Jerome famously said “Ignorance of Scripture is ignorance of Christ.” If you feel called to know Christ better, consider joining us in OLG's weekly Scripture Faith Sharing every Tuesday, 7 - 8 p.m., via videoconference.

We cover the readings for the upcoming Sundays. For each reading, a brief historical context is provided, followed by the reading, reflection and discussion.

The Scripture Faith Sharing is facilitated by Carlos Diaz, one of our long-time parishioners who completed his Master Catechist training and the 3-year certificate program through the Catholic Bible Institute. For information or questions, contact Carlos at scripture@olgmail.org.

We meet via GoToMeeting videoconference. Join the meeting on Tuesdays at <https://global.gotomeeting.com/join/815419765>. If this is your first time using GoToMeeting, you can get the app beforehand at this <https://global.gotomeeting.com/install/815419765>. Then join us at 6:45 p.m. so we can get you all settled in and familiar with the videoconferencing setup.

Please Pray for Our Healthcare Workers and First Responders, and Essential Workers

Please let us pray for all who are working on the front lines of this pandemic. Doctors, nurses, all who are in the healthcare profession, first responders, and all essential workers. If you have a loved one that you would like to pray for during this difficult time, please send their name to bulletin@olgmail.org or call during parish phone hours at 310-372-7077.

God who traveled before and behind the Israelites in their journey from slavery to freedom, surround and support the men and women working in your healing ministry today. Never leave them, comfort them, and keep them well. Give them the strength to care for those who are sick and dying as well as the strength to receive help from others. Be with their families of all who serve. Send your peace for their anxieties, joy for their fears, hope for their despair, and light for their darkness. We pray in the confidence of your love. Amen.

Dios que viajó antes y detrás de los israelitas en su viaje de la esclavitud a la libertad, rodea y apoya a los hombres y mujeres que trabajan en tu ministerio de sanidad hoy. nunca los deje, consuélelos y manténgalos bien. Dales la fuerza para cuidar a los enfermos y moribundos, así como la fuerza para recibir ayuda de otros. Estar con sus familias de todos los que sirven. Envía tu paz por sus ansiedades, alegría por sus miedos, esperanza por su desesperación y luz por su oscuridad. Oramos en la confianza de tu amor. Amén.
