Mass Indoors or Outdoors?

As you may have already read, because of Supreme Court rulings in similar cases, LA county will no longer attempt to prevent Religious Services from being indoors; however, it is highly recommended that Churches continue to worship outdoors. Additionally, our Archbishop has given the same directive, namely that it is best if we continue outdoors for now. Currently, we have moved the 8 AM Daily Mass and 7 AM Sunday Mass indoors to the church as the number of persons attending these Masses are small. For now, we will continue all other Masses outside in the church parking lot. We are continuing to evaluate the situations with our staff, volunteers, and the Bishops, and will let you know as our plans change.

SPEAK, LORD, WE ARE LISTENING

In this Sunday's first reading God keeps calling out in the night to a sleeping boy. Neither the boy, Samuel, nor his teacher, Eli, understands who is calling. But God's persistence convinces them. Samuel is then ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. "Speak, for your servant is listening" (1 Samuel 3:10).

In the Gospel, Jesus is out teaching. Various people notice him and begin to gather around. They soon become disciples and, like the young Samuel, are ready—not ready yet to do anything, but ready to listen. "Speak," they say, "we are listening."

God's voice is always with us, awake or asleep. It swirls around us like fog on a waterfront, enveloping us, gently urging us to wake up, to listen. Awareness of the voice comes first; then willingness to listen; then, in time, the decision to act, to live according to God's word. Let's ask today for the ability to keep our ears open so we don't miss God's voice.

Un mensaje del p. Carlos

DIOS NOS ESTÁ INVITANDO A TODOS.

Hemos iniciado un nuevo tiempo litúrgico, el tiempo ordinario, ya estamos en la segunda semana. Hemos dejado la navidad y sus luces y brillo. Pero no es porque se apagaron, no, de ninguna manera, ahora están brillando en nuestros actos diarios. El enfoque de la palabra de este domingo es vocacional, se refiere al llamado que todos hemos recibido por Dios desde que soñó con nosotros y por ser bautizados estamos llamados como Samuel a escuchar la voz de Dios que me llama, porque la palabra va dirigida a todos los bautizados que estamos llamados a tomar un puesto de misión.

Esta invitación es vocacional y no es solo para ser sacerdote, religioso o misionera, va dirigida en general a todos no importando nuestro estado de vida o sea si eres casado desde tu vida de casado, soltero, desde tu vida de soltero, etc Te invita a caminar con El, implicándote en la construcción del Reino de Dios. Estás listo?

Decimos que la vocación es la respuesta a una llamada que el hombre recibe de parte de Dios. Quien toma la iniciativa es el que llama, el Señor. Esto se observa claramente en la primera lectura donde el "convocado" es un adolescente inexperto que vive en una época en que "era rara la palabra de Yahvé". Dios se fijó en un muchacho, no en el sacerdote Elí, porque Dios prefiere a los pequeños tal como había cantado Ana, madre de Samuel. La llamada es pura gracia, don que Dios da. Él se fija en ti y te llama por tu nombre como a Samuel. Te está diciendo primero que te ama; después, que cuenta contigo; al fin, pide tu colaboración para que trabajes por el Reino, que ayudes al hermano necesitado, que compartas el dolor del que está enfermo o excluido, que seas instrumento de paz, que hagas de tu profesión un servicio, que proclames con tu vida la Buena Noticia e incluso que lo dejes todo por El. Es hermoso saber que Dios "te ha soñado" desde el principio de una manera, que espera mucho de ti, pero que respeta tu libertad. El sólo quiere que seas feliz haciendo felices a los demás.

Dios no llama sólo una vez en la vida. Su llamada se mantiene a lo largo de toda tu vida. Te puede llamar también a través de los hermanos. Son las mediaciones que Dios utiliza para darnos a conocer su sueño.

Tras la llamada de Dios hay un discernimiento para aclarar mejor por dónde tenemos que ir. No es fácil, por eso necesitamos como Samuel alguien que nos acompañe. Samuel fue a ver a Elí. Los dos discípulos acudieron a Juan, que les mostró a Jesús "que pasaba". El paso de Jesús por nuestra propia historia personal no es fácil de apreciar. Muchos como Herodes y el joven rico también se cruzaron con él, pero no fueron capaces de escucharle y de seguirle. Hoy decimos que hay menos vocaciones para la vida religiosa o el sacerdocio. Yo creo que Dios sigue llamando, pero no sabemos escucharle porque hay mucho ruido a nuestro alrededor. Todo lo relacionado con la vocación necesita de mucha oración, reflexión y consejo. No siempre percibimos la Palabra con claridad. En toda vocación hay mucho de búsqueda, pero en muchas ocasiones Dios nos da la luz a través de experiencias y de personas que nos iluminan.

"Habla, Señor, que tu siervo escucha", Dios nos invita a experimentar su vida y a gozar de los dones que nos regala. "Fueron, vieron y se quedaron" .¡Qué generosidad y que amor demostraron! No sabían bien lo que implicaba su decisión, pero se han dejado seducir, se han enamorado de Dios. Andrés, uno de los discípulos comunica su alegría a su hermano Simón: "Hemos encontrado al Mesías" y lo llevó a Jesús, la felicidad de experimentar y saber que Dios te llama debe transmitirse, necesitamos eso más y más, sobretodo en nuestra comunidad parroquial, que nos sintamos todos y todas llamados por Dios a servir, no sean sordos a su llamado. Amen.

Talk to your children about social media challenges

Children have spent many months at home now, separated from friends and classmates. Social media is a great tool to stay in touch, but there are definitely dangerous aspects to much “screen time” that parents need to be aware about. Social media challenges range from funny and harmless to risky and dangerous — and sometimes even illegal. If your child has social media accounts, talk to them about making smart choices and about knowing the difference between harmless pranks and seriously dangerous stunts. Make a pact to discuss anything they see their friends or acquaintances doing before they try it out at home. For more information go to <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>

Hable con sus hijos sobre los desafíos de las redes sociales

Los niños han pasado muchos meses en casa, separados de amigos y compañeros de clase. Las redes sociales son una gran herramienta para mantenerse en contacto, pero definitivamente hay aspectos peligrosos de mucho “tiempo frente a la pantalla” que los padres deben tener en cuenta. Los desafíos de las redes sociales van desde divertidos e inofensivos hasta riesgosos y peligrosos, y a veces incluso ilegales. Si sus hijos tienen cuentas en las redes sociales, platique con ellos sobre cómo tomar decisiones inteligentes y saber la diferencia entre bromas inofensivas y acrobacias muy peligrosas. Haga un pacto con ellos para discutir cualquier cosa que ellos vean hacer sus amigos o conocidos antes de probarlo en casa. Para obtener más consejos sobre la seguridad de las redes sociales, visite <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

God who traveled before and behind the Israelites in their journey from slavery to freedom, surround and support the men and women working in your healing ministry today. Never leave them, comfort them, and keep them well. Give them the strength to care for those who are sick and dying as well as the strength to receive help from others. Be with their families of all who serve. Send your peace for their anxieties, joy for their fears, hope for their despair, and light for their darkness. We pray in the confidence of your love. Amen.

Dios que viajó antes y detrás de los israelitas en su viaje de la esclavitud a la libertad, rodea y apoya a los hombres y mujeres que trabajan en tu ministerio de sanidad hoy. nunca los deje, consuélalos y manténgalos bien. Dales la fuerza para cuidar a los enfermos y moribundos, así como la fuerza para recibir ayuda de otros. Estar con sus familias de todos los que sirven. Envía tu paz por sus ansiedades, alegría por sus miedos, esperanza por su desesperación y luz por su oscuridad. Oramos en la confianza de tu amor. Amén.
