TOTAL ALLEGIANCE

In previous weeks we have seen how the theme of covenant—as a preparation for the baptismal covenant celebrated at Easter—occupies an important place in our cycle of Lenten readings. The notion of covenant as a relationship between two parties carries with it an expectation of mutual accountability and fidelity to the terms of the covenant.

When God forged the covenant with the Jewish people on Mt. Sinai, it was a pledge of God’s protection, and it would forever permit them familiar access as the Chosen People. For their part, the Jewish people were to observe the dictates of the law, summarized most succinctly here in the form of the Ten Commandments. To be in a covenantal relationship with the Lord God requires an exclusive relationship, just as discipleship with Jesus—ritualized in baptism—demands a total allegiance to Him and none other.

Un mensaje del p. Carlos

Dios sabe siempre lo que más necesitamos.

El tercer domingo de Cuaresma nos adentra, justo en su punto, las lecturas nos hacen un claro llamamiento a ir hacia dentro, a profundizar, a dejar de lado imágenes e ídolos y girar nuestras vidas hacia el que dice de sí mismo: «soy el Señor, tu Dios».

Nos encontramos con esta propuesta de mirada interior tanto en el texto del Éxodo, cuando Dios entrega a Moisés los Mandamientos, como en el texto de Juan. En la lectura que nos ofrece el Evangelio de hoy Jesús se enfrenta a quienes han convertido el templo en un mercado donde no hay verdadero encuentro con su Padre, sino una suerte de compra y venta de “favores divinos”.

Esta invitación, en medio de nuestra segunda Cuaresma pandémica quizás nos ayude a seguir despojándonos de lo superficial para avanzar en lo esencial de nuestras vidas.

Cuando Dios y Moisés se encuentran y le propone los mandamientos, o sea La ley, que no es un listado de prohibiciones, sino que quiere ser un camino luminoso por el que el pueblo puede avanzar hacia Yahvé. Esa ley comienza reclamando hacer memoria de quién es este Dios: «Yo soy el Señor, tu Dios, que te saqué de Egipto, de la esclavitud. No tendrás otros dioses frente a mí». Esa es la alianza para siempre, un solo Dios, un solo pueblo, un solo Señor.

Todo está bien planeado, cuidar el mundo, hacerlo prosperar para beneficio de todos, y así vamos a encontrarnos con el Dios de la Creación que te ama y que te está invitando a volver hacia Él, solo en Él podemos encontrar palabras de vida eterna y de misericordia. Por eso es que cuando nos desviamos sufrimos mucho, nos golpeamos, nos terminamos en otras palabras porque vamos tras lo que no conocemos, lo que parece un gran proyecto, pero no lo es. Amar a Dios, al otro y a mi mismo. Eso no nos hace acabar con nuestra vida, al contrario, nos lleva a promover todo tipo de vida entre nosotros, especialmente la vida de la salvación.

Porque él sabía lo que hay dentro de cada hombre y mujer y por eso hoy nos propone ver hacia adentro, con libertad y responsabilidad de volvernos hacia el camino que hemos dejado, con honestidad decir me equivoque, volveré a la casa de mi padre. Y ahí lo encontraremos esperándonos con los brazos abiertos. No hagamos un mercado barato de lo que se nos dio con el mejor precio: la sangre del Cordero para nuestra vida eterna, apartemonos de lo superfluo, vayamos a nuestro interior, ahí donde todos nos conocemos muy bien. Y ahí pondremos las cosas en orden, de acuerdo para lo que fuimos creados. Bendiciones.

Invite Christ to be a part of your journey of Lent. Allow the light of Christ to enter any darkness in your life. May you live in the freedom of God's children, living in God's Peace and Love.

Lenten Focus: Eliminate what distracts us from God.

Let's pray together as a church

Lord, grant that I may always allow myself to be guided by You, always follow Your plans,
and perfectly accomplish Your Holy Will.
Grant that in all things, great and small,
today and all the days of my life,
I may do whatever You require of me.
Help me respond to the slightest prompting of Your Grace, so that I may be Your trustworthy instrument for Your honor.
May Your Will be done in time and in eternity by me, in me, and through me. Amen.

Stations of the Cross

On each Friday during Lent at 7:00 PM, we are celebrating the Stations of the Cross in the Church. The Stations were a development of prayer based upon the Passion and death of Jesus Christ. The practice of celebrating the Stations began in Jerusalem and then spread throughout the Church by the Franciscans. During the Stations, there will be an opportunity for Confession.

Reconciliation

Confessions are available Fridays during the Stations of the Cross at 7 pm and on Saturdays from 9-10 AM.

LENT 2021 | Reflect. Repent. Restore.

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
March 7	March 8	March 9	March 10	March 11	March 12	March 13
Third Sunday of Lent In today's first reading, we are reminded of the Ten Commandments. Which commandment do you struggle with the most? Aim for one small improvement this week.	"The Church's obligation to participate in shaping the moral character of society is a requirement of our faith. It is a basic part of the mission we have received from Jesus Christ." (Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship, no. 9)	Today is the memorial of St. Frances of Rome, who organized a women's religious order—the Oblates of Mary—and was known for her great charity. In her honor today, let us pray for those in consecrated life.	Heart of Jesus, Son of the eternal Father, have mercy on us. (Litany of the Sacred Heart)	During Lent we often pray the seven penitential psalms, like this one, "Out of the depths I call to you, LORD; / Lord, hear my cry! / May your ears be attentive / to my cry for mercy." (Ps 130:1-2, NABRE)	"When we begin to separate people in our thoughts for unjust reasons, when we start to see some people as 'them' and others as 'us,' we fail to love." (Open Wide Our Hearts, USCCB)	In Lent, we are called to renew our baptismal commitment. We recall those waters in which we were baptized into Christ's death, died to sin and evil, and began new life in Christ.

2020-2021 OLG Catechumens and Candidates

Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) is the official process in which one is baptized (Catechumens), professes faith to the Catholic Church (Candidate), or for a baptized Catholic to complete their initiation process with the Sacraments of First Communion and Confirmation. This Sunday is the first of three scrutinies.

First Scrutiny

The scrutinies are celebrated in order to deliver the elect from the power of sin and Satan, to protect them against temptation, and to give them strength in Christ. The scrutinies and their accompanying exorcisms are a series of rites that cannot be condensed in time; they need time “to work.” Nor should we diminish their ritual symbols of silence, posture, litany, and hand laying. Laying on hands is required in the Scrutinies. The Scrutiny takes place within the Liturgy of the Word led by a priest or deacon. The next 3 Sundays we will be celebrating the scrutinies.

In our parish the following people in the RCIA program:

Catechumens

- 1. Kristine Jacobs
 - 2. René Martínez

Candidates

- 1. Tricia Feist
 - 2. James MacNicoll
 - 3. Ariana Gatling
 - 4. Ariana Gonzalez
 - 5. Cesar Morales

Prayer for the scrutinies:
Jesus you prayed, “I revealed your name to those whom you gave me out of the world. They belonged to you, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your word. Now they know that everything you gave me is from you, because the words you gave to me I have given to them, and they accepted them and truly understood that I came from you, and they have believed that you sent me. I pray for them. I do not pray for the world but for the ones you have given me, because they are yours." We join you in praying for these catechumens and candidates that you may keep them and protect them, that they may stay in you and may come to full union with you and your church at the Easter Vigil.

Adults Seeking Sacraments

For adults who would like to receive Baptism, Eucharist, or Confirmation or just want to learn more about the Catholic faith, please register for the Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults \(RCIA\) click here.

Would you like to receive the Eucharist in your home during these times of Pandemic?

We can train and empower you to bring the Eucharist to your home/family during this time of Pandemic. You will learn how to handle the Eucharist, and how to hold a communion service in your home or receive Eucharist during the Mass live stream. This opportunity is intended for family members who may still be unable to come to Mass, especially older and at-risk family members. Click here to fill out a quick form and we'll contact you with more information.

Preparation for Infant Baptism

It is a cause of great joy and celebration to help you baptize your child (or children) into the Catholic Church, especially here at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. Taking this step is an integral part of your faith, the beginning of your promise to raise your child in the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church. During these COVID times, we offer virtual classes via Zoom for infant baptisms (ages birth to 5 years old) on the second Wednesday of each month from 7-8:30 PM in English. Please contact our team at baptism@olgmail.org for a registration form or for more information visit the parish website at this page. If your child is over 5 years old, our team will provide you with additional information on the baptismal preparation process.

Opportunities To Grow In Faith

The Case for Jesus - The Biblical and Historical Evidence for Christ

Can we trust the Gospels? Do we really know who wrote them? Do the Gospels communicate truth – or fabricated fables? Who is Jesus? Dr. Pitre’s powerful presentation will strengthen your faith so that you can not only stand firm and profess that Jesus truly is “the Christ, the Son of the living God,” but also confidently respond to any skeptics you encounter. Click here to access this series on FORMED.org (IF you've never been to FORMED.org, see the below instructions for how to access the contact for free.)

God who traveled before and behind the Israelites in their journey from slavery to freedom, surround and support the men and women working in your healing ministry today. Never leave them, comfort them, and keep them well. Give them the strength to care for those who are sick and dying as well as the strength to receive help from others. Be with their families of all who serve. Send your peace for their anxieties, joy for their fears, hope for their despair, and light for their darkness. We pray in the confidence of your love. Amen.

Dios que viajó antes y detrás de los israelitas en su viaje de la esclavitud a la libertad, rodea y apoya a los hombres y mujeres que trabajan en tu ministerio de sanidad hoy. nunca los deje, consuélelos y manténgalos bien. Dales la fuerza para cuidar a los enfermos y moribundos, así como la fuerza para recibir ayuda de otros. Estar con sus familias de todos los que sirven. Envía tu paz por sus ansiedades, alegría por sus miedos, esperanza por su desesperación y luz por su oscuridad. Oramos en la confianza de tu amor. Amén.

Helping children cope with grief

With the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic, many children are grieving — they may have lost family members, they are cut off from their friends and their routines, and their lives have changed significantly. Parents can help children work through their strong emotions by acknowledging their feelings and encouraging children to talk about them. Talk with them honestly and simply, helping them to answer any questions they might have about why this is happening, or what will happen next. Often, showing children that they are
