PALM SUNDAY

On Palm Sunday we receive palm fronds which we use to participate in the reenactment of Christ's triumphant arrival in Jerusalem, days before he was crucified. In the Gospels, Jesus entered Jerusalem riding a young donkey, and to the lavish praise of the townspeople who threw clothes, or possibly palms or small branches, in front of him as a sign of homage. This was a customary practice for people of great respect.^(a)

Palm branches are widely recognized symbol of peace and victory. The use of a donkey instead of a horse is highly symbolic, it represents the humble arrival of someone in peace, as opposed to arriving on a steed in war.^(a)

Palm Sunday is the final Sunday of Lent, the beginning of Holy Week. It is important to remember that we call this "Holy Week" and not "sad week" or "suffering week," for each of the Sunday readings, even the lamentations of the psalm, end in the promise of the strength and hope that is granted by God to those who faithfully give of themselves in love. As we enter into this week through these readings, we must reflect deeply on the sufferings of Jesus, but still be confident in the joy of risen, eternal life that awaits all of us who faithfully walk with him through these days.^(b)

Un mensaje del p. Carlos

Con del Domingo de Ramos, comienza, para la Iglesia, la semana santa que culminará en la Vigilia Pascual-Domingo de Resurrección.

Normalmente esta celebración tiene dos partes, una afuera del templo en otro lugar arreglado para la bendición de los ramos, lectura del evangelio y luego inicia la procesión hacia el templo, que conmemora la peregrinación hacia la pascua de Resurrección algunas parroquias tienen la posibilidad de hacerlo con procesion afuera, otros se hace dentro del mismo templo o en el atrio.

La “doble” celebración de este día –procesión y eucaristía- reviste por un lado un ambiente festivo con la aclamación de la realiza de Cristo “Hosanna en las alturas”; (procesión de ramos), y, por otro, un ambiente de muerte “crucifícalo”. Si en el primer evangelio se puede escuchar y sentir a todos los perdonados, curados, sanados y amados por Cristo; en el “crucifícalo” del segundo evangelio se escuchan la voz de los que quieren, (y quizá no pueden), apartar a Dios del mundo Quienes se unen al coro del “crucifícalo”, no se percatan que, a la vuelta de una semana, la resurrección de Cristo será una realidad. Realidad visible, no solo en la naturaleza, por el nuevo crecimiento de la vida en primavera, sino porque la muerte ya no tiene lugar en este mundo: el Viviente ya no muere más, vive para siempre – Pascua Florida.

En un mundo “tan tolerante”, donde el hablar de Dios es signo de gente atrasada o retrógrada como dicen algunos, los seguidores del Resucitado tenemos que salir a los distintos ambientes a proclamar que la vida, la resurrección, es una realidad espiritual incontestable.

Debe ser esta Santa Semana tiempo para que el cristiano confronte su proyecto de vida con el de Cristo. El asumir los triunfos y alegrías, las tristezas y las esperanzas propias, y de los demás –cirineos-, para que sean transformadas y resurgidas por y en la resurrección de Cristo en la Vigilia Pascual de la Noche Santa. Hoy hemos llegado al inicio de la semana santa, prácticamente este domingo abre la semana , celebramos la entrada triunfal de Jesus a Jerusalén.

El Jueves santo celebraremos la eucaristía por la tarde, recordando o conmemorando a Jesús el que se pone a servir a los demás, lavando los pies y la invitación de lavarnos los pies unos a otros como signo de amor fraterno, de ayuda mutua. recordamos este día la institución de la Eucartistia, Cristo se ofrece como comida y bebida para siempre. Y también se recuerda que es el día de acordarse de los mas necesitados, la caridad fraterna, es parte de la misión que Jesus ha enseñado.

Viernes Santo nos reuniremos para la celebración de la palabra o el servicio para rememorar la importancia de la Cruz con la acostumbrada, veneración de la Cruz como signo de salvación. Hay una oración universal especial recordando a muchos en la Iglesia orando por ellos y se da la comunión, pero no se hace misa no es hostias consagradas ese día. Se han reservado del día anterior. Este servicio tiene el aspecto fuerte de meditación, oración del silencio. Continuamos sábado casi todo el día en un ambiente de meditación, en expectativa a lo que vendrá , se recomienda tener nuestras prácticas devocionales personales ayudando a esta meditación.

Sábado santo por la noche la Iglesia comienza las vísperas, o vigilia de la resurrección, se prepara la Iglesia para vivir la pascua, El Paso de Cristo por cada familia y persona que lo sigue y lo espera resucitado.

Domingo de Resurrección, damos inicio a la pascua Florida o gloriosa , Cristo ha Resucitado y con su Resurrección hemos resucitado todos. Ha vencido a la muerte y regresa al Cielo de donde vino.

Entremos a la semana santa con mucha esperanza, oración, devoción y actitud meditativa. Paz y bien.

LENT 2021 | Reflect. Repent. Restore.

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY
March 28	March 29	March 30	March 31	April 1	April 2	April 3
Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord In one week, we will celebrate Easter Sunday. Pray that the Lord allow you to accompany him serenely during these Easter mysteries and you may emerge from them renewed in faith, hope and charity.	Holy Week is here. How have you grown throughout your Lenten journey?	Take time this week to go to confession. Before celebrating the Sacrament of Penance, prepare yourself with an examination of conscience , which involves reflecting prayerfully on one's thoughts, words, and deeds in order to identify any sins.	Lent officially ends tomorrow as the Mass of the Lord's Supper begins. Contact your parish to learn more about how you can participate in the moving liturgies of the Triduum.	Holy Thursday "If I, therefore, the master and teacher, have washed your feet, / you ought to wash one another's feet." (Jn 13: 14, Lectionary)	Good Friday As we mark the day on which Jesus was crucified, pray the Stations of the Cross to reflect on Christ's Passion.	Holy Saturday As you prepare for Easter, reflect on your Lenten journey and think about how you can continue to grow throughout the Easter season.

USCCB Lent Calendar available in English or in Spanish

We would like to decorate the church with white lilies for Easter as it represents a trumpet sounding the message that Jesus is risen. These lilies can be dedicated in honor or in memory of a loved one, and their names will be included in the bulletin during Easter Season. If you would like to make an offering, please contact the parish office by Holy Thursday 310-372-7077 or by email office@olgmail.org

Would you like to receive the Eucharist in your home during these times of Pandemic?

We can train and empower you to bring the Eucharist to your home/family during this time of Pandemic. You will learn how to handle the Eucharist, and how to hold a communion service in your home or receive Eucharist during the Mass live stream. This opportunity is intended for family members who may still be unable to come to Mass, especially older and at-risk family members. Click here to fill out a quick form and we'll contact you with more information.

Preparation for Infant Baptism

It is a cause of great joy and celebration to help you baptize your child (or children) into the Catholic Church, especially here at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. Taking this step is an integral part of your faith, the beginning of your promise to raise your child in the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church. During these COVID times, we offer virtual classes via Zoom for infant baptisms (ages birth to 5 years old) on the second Wednesday of each month from 7-8:30 PM in English.

Please contact our team at baptism@olgm.org for a registration form or for more information visit the parish website at this page. If your child is over 5 years old, our team will provide you with additional information on the baptismal preparation process.

Rejoice and be glad! The following blessed bunch received the sacrament of Baptism at Our Lady of Guadalupe during the pandemic. May they know, love and serve God.

For we are his handiwork, created in Christ Jesus for the good works that God has prepared in advance, that we should live them. (Ephesians 2:10)

Casting Our Nets into the Deep – Making Disciples of Jesus

Have you ever been in love with Jesus and wanted to share Jesus' love to someone else? If yes, Fr. Paul is highly recommending you to attend a free monthly Zoom seminar hosted by the Archdiocese of Los Angeles to recognize the various states of their faith journey people are at and to help guide them into a closer relationship with Christ.

Fr. Paul's hope is we all work together to become an evangelizing parish, in our families and here at church. Based on Sherry Weddell's book called Forming Intentional Disciples, the program called Casting Our Nets into the Deep – Making Disciples of Jesus will help transform your life and ministries. Our mission is to evangelize and form more disciples of Jesus and make his Kingdom known beyond our walls at OLG. Click here for more information and to sign up

Giving with a cheerful heart is one of the ways we not only show our obedience to God but also demonstrate our recognition that we are only stewards of our earthly possessions while He is the true owner. God gives to you so He can give through you.

Please consider online giving for your church offering

Your offering to Our Lady of Guadalupe makes a difference within our parish and throughout our local community. The best way to support our ministry is to set up a Recurring Donation. Thank You.

Together in Mission

An the annual appeal where all 288 parishes within the Archdiocese of Los Angeles asks parishioners to make gifts and pledges to directly and exclusively support the poorest parishes and schools in the Archdiocese of Los Angeles, demonstrating our faith in and love for one another – and that we truly are one Church.

The parish of Our Lady of Guadalupe was so generous even during the pandemic with shutdowns, restrictions, and hardships that we reached our pledge goal last year. We gratefully recognize your unprecedented efforts and appreciate your commitment to aid struggling parishes and schools. Please pray for all who are working on the front lines of this pandemic. Doctors, nurses, all who are in the healthcare profession, first responders, and all essential workers:

Chuck Anderson

God who traveled before and behind the Israelites in their journey from slavery to freedom, surround and support the men and women working in your healing ministry today. Never leave them, comfort them, and keep them well. Give them the strength to care for those who are sick and dying as well as the strength to receive help from others. Be with their families of all who serve. Send your peace for their anxieties, joy for their fears, hope for their despair, and light for their darkness. We pray in the confidence of your love. Amen.

Dios que viajó antes y detrás de los israelitas en su viaje de la esclavitud a la libertad, rodea y apoya a los hombres y mujeres que trabajan en tu ministerio de sanidad hoy. nunca los deje, consuélalos y manténgalos bien. Dales la fuerza para cuidar a los enfermos y moribundos, así como la fuerza para recibir ayuda de otros. Estar con sus familias de todos los que sirven. Envía tu paz por sus ansiedades, alegría por sus miedos, esperanza por su desesperación y luz por su oscuridad. Oramos en la confianza de tu amor. Amén.

Lenten Lectio Divina: A Journey of Listening to Scripture

Continues every Fridays during Lent through April 2, 2021

with Christine Sanchirico

Lectio Divina is a slow contemplative reading of Scripture, deeply listening with the ears of mind, heart, and soul, to hear and absorb the still small voice of God whispering within. We meet on zoom each Friday morning during Lent, and listen as scripture is read four times, with time for reflection after each reading, and time for gentle sharing with each other what is resonating within us. Abusive behavior is nonconsensual

The term “consensual” implies that a person freely agrees to do something and understands what they are consenting to do. When it comes to child abuse, no child can give consent, or freely agree, to engage in inappropriate behavior with an older person – however children can be manipulated such that it appears they have consented in some way out of deference to the abuser’s authority. This is why abuse often involves misuse or abuse of power over a victim and can be accomplished through a range of inappropriate behaviors that give the abuser the upper hand.
