FULFILLMENT

It is interesting that during the Easter season, when we do not hear a reading from the Old Testament, it becomes so important. This is particularly true in this Sunday's reading. Peter's speech begins with a prayer formula familiar to Jews: "The God of Abraham . . ." (Acts 3:13). It likewise contains the potent phrases "Holy and Righteous One" and "mouth of all the prophets" (3:14, 18). Peter was stating in no uncertain terms that the law, psalms, and prophets had been fulfilled in Christ. This is reinforced by Jesus himself in the Gospel passage, when he states that everything in the scriptures (to the early Christians "the scriptures" were what we call the Old Testament) had to be fulfilled. Above all, Jesus and Peter both emphasize that we are witnesses to all of this, and are sent forth to bear witness to it in the world. The Latin Missa, from which our word "Mass" comes, means "sent" (as in "mission"). As we leave Mass today, let us remember to be witnesses to all that has been fulfilled in the risen Christ.

Un mensaje del p. Carlos

Este tiempo litúrgico nos apremia a divulgar que Cristo Ha Resucitado, que esta presente en nuestras vidas, pero no porque somos mejores que otros, no, es mas bien porque nos hacemos testigos de su presencia resucitada dando testimonio del misterio salvífico a través de nuestras obras, lo hacemos presente recordando que en aquel tiempo lo traicionaron y lo llevaron a la cruz pero que ahora El nos lleva a nosotros a la salvación.

Por la curación del paralítico los apóstoles comienzan a ser cuestionados, pues era prohibido hablar en nombre de aquel que murió en la Cruz pero que Resucitó y subió al Cielo de donde había venido. Pedro les dirige estas palabras a los que los cuestionaban. La fe en Jesús resucitado tiene que ser testimoniada siempre con los hechos y, cuando sea oportuno, con la palabra. El signo y la palabra van siempre inseparablemente unidos en la actividad misionera de los apóstoles. El milagro ha sido realizado porque el enfermo tenía fe en el "nombre de Jesús". La fe es una condición indispensable para gozar de la vida en plenitud. Pedro da testimonio de que Dios no es un Dios lejano; es un Dios familiar, cercano: "el Dios de nuestros padres". A la salida del pueblo de Egipto se corresponde ahora la salida de Jesús de la muerte. Al pueblo lo liberó Dios; a Jesús lo resucitó Dios. Pedro dice que el justo que ellos mataron, el autor de la vida, Dios lo resucitó. Comprende que ha sido por ignorancia, pero la ignorancia también es culpable cuando es vencible, por eso les anima a arrepentirse y convertirse para que se borren sus pecados. Es importante la conclusión a la que Pedro invita: cambio de mentalidad y de actuación como condición imprescindible para superar los condicionamientos injustos y las decisiones arbitrarias. Dios borra los pecados lo mismo que se borra una deuda. Dios perdona y no tiene en cuenta los pecados de aquellos que creen en Jesucristo.

Tener experiencia de Jesucristo resucitado. El evangelio de San Lucas de este domingo es la Pedro fue de los primeros en reconocer al Señor resucitado después de las mujeres que fueron al sepulcro. No basta con que alguien hable de la resurrección, sino que es necesario tener experiencia del resucitado. Esta experiencia es personal e intransferible, poco a poco la van teniendo los discípulos. Cuando recibieron a los dos de Emaús estaban comentando lo que les había sucedido por el camino y cómo lo habían reconocido al partir el pan. Pero ahora Jesús toma de nuevo la iniciativa y se hace presente en medio de los discípulos. La insistencia en que le palpen las manos y los pies es porque quiere demostrarles que Él es el mismo que murió en la cruz. Muerte y resurrección van unidas. Se cumplen así las Escrituras: el Mesías padecerá, pero resucitará al tercer día. Lo del tercer día es porque para los judíos uno no estaba definitivamente muerto hasta que pasaban tres días del fallecimiento. Así se aseguraban totalmente de que no enterraban a un ser vivo. Sólo entonces procedían a enterrarle definitivamente en el sepulcro.

Seamos testigos de Jesucristo resucitado. Jesús les pide a los discípulos, también a nosotros, que sean testigos de la resurrección, que anuncien la conversión y el perdón de los pecados, comenzando por Jerusalén. Testigo es aquél que no sólo ha visto o ha oído, sino que sobre todo ha experimentado algo que ha transformado su vida. Entonces no le queda más remedio que comunicarlo a todos. Podemos preguntarnos: ¿Cómo puedo ser testigo aquí y ahora de la experiencia de Cristo resucitado? En nuestro tiempo se necesitan testigos antes que maestros. La experiencia de fe no se transmite de memoria o por lo que hemos aprendido en los libros, sólo nuestro testimonio será creíble si lo que decimos lo hemos experimentado antes en nuestra vida. Es un mandato del Señor resucitado dar testimonio de nuestra fe. Paz y bien. † continuación de la aparición a los discípulos de Emaús. Ellos le reconocieron y volvieron a Jerusalén a contárselo a todos. Reconocieron que "era verdad, ha resucitado el Señor y se ha aparecido a Simón".

Recall that St. Francis of Assisi, renowned for his love of nature, was declared the patron saint of ecology by Pope John Paul II. The famous Francis poem (Canticle of the Creatures) has the refrain Praise be to You or Laudato Si', praising God's creation of the natural earth, or as Fr. Paul described in the 2021 Easter beach Mass, the cathedral built by God.

As the first pope to adopt the Assisi saint as a papal namesake, Pope Francis authored the encyclical "Laudato Si': On Care For Our Common Home". Pope Francis says instead of viewing humanity as having dominion over the earth, we must see how everything is interconnected and all creation is a "universal family".

This calls to mind the naturalist John Muir saying call.
