RESPONDING TO THE CALL

Do we truly know the voice of Christ? Do we truly respond to the voice of our shepherd with our own distinctive voice? How often we attempt to imitate those around us, appropriating the response of another member of the flock to Christ. Perhaps we need to balance the image of being sheep of one flock with the image from the second reading, which tells us that we are all children of God. What child has precisely the same interaction with parents as his or her siblings? Instead, they frequently do and say things to distinguish themselves in the eyes of their parents.

Whether we use the image of children or of sheep to understand our relationship with Christ, we believe that we are all known and called by name. With this great gift comes a responsibility: to respond to the call with our own distinctive voice, to take time to discern exactly what our call is, to determine precisely what the will of the Father is for each of us.*

World Day of Prayer for Vocations is this Sunday, April 25th. Also known as "Good Shepherd Sunday." This is a day to publicly fulfill the Lord's instruction to, "Pray the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into his harvest" (Mt 9:38; Lk 10:2). Please pray that young men and women hear and respond generously to the Lord's call to the priesthood, diaconate, religious life, societies of apostolic life or secular institutes. More information about World Day of Prayer and a message from Pope Francis visit the USCCB website.

Un mensaje del p. Carlos

San José , Ejemplo de vocación. Domingo del Buen Pastor.

Aleluya, Aleluya, El Señor Resucitó y sigue Resucitado, la Iglesia en su plan de animar y de renovar nos recuerda que este domingo IV de Pascua debemos orar especialmente por las vocaciones sacerdotales y religiosas y no solo el domingo si no la semana y siempre. Jesús es el ejemplo del Buen Pastor, el cuida, apacienta, cura, alimenta. El Papa Francisco declaró a San José como el santo del año digamos que nos está invitando a acogernos a su protección y a la protección de la Iglesia. Reconoce en San José un modelo de vocación atento al llamado de Dios, y dice, las vocaciones tienden a esto: a generar y regenerar la vida cada día. El Señor quiere forjar corazones de padres, corazones de madres; corazones abiertos, capaces de grandes impulsos, generosos en la entrega, compasivos en el consuelo de la angustia y firmes en el fortalecimiento de la esperanza. Esto es lo que el sacerdocio y la vida consagrada necesitan, especialmente hoy, en tiempos marcados por la fragilidad y los sufrimientos causados también por la pandemia, que ha suscitado incertidumbre y miedo sobre el futuro y el mismo sentido de la vida. San José viene a nuestro encuentro con su mansedumbre, como santo de la puerta de al lado; al mismo tiempo, su fuerte testimonio puede orientarnos en el camino. (En su carta con motivo del día mundial de Oración por las vocaciones Papa Francisco) Nos dice el Papa Francisco que San José, fue un hombre simple, sencillo, no famoso o pretencioso, pero sí entregado, humilde, justo y atento a la voz de Dios. El como el Patrón Universal de la Iglesia, es el padre de Jesús y dice que seamos como San José en tres cosas, sueños, servicio y fidelidad.

Dios ve el corazón y en San José reconoció un corazón de padre, capaz de dar y generar vida en lo cotidiano. Las vocaciones tienden a esto: a generar y regenerar la vida cada día. El Señor quiere forjar corazones de padres, corazones de madres; corazones abiertos, capaces de grandes impulsos, generosos en la entrega, compasivos en el consuelo de la angustia y firmes en el fortalecimiento de la esperanza.

Las lecturas de este domingo nos siguen guiando por la responsabilidad que tenemos de anunciar la vida de Cristo Resucitado, vida nueva desde el bautismo, desde los sacramentos. Sigamos viviendo este espíritu de Jesús presente en nuestras vidas.

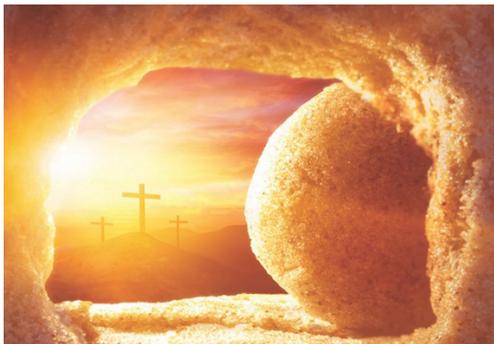

Oremos y comprometámonos en la oración para que más hombres y mujeres quieran servir a la Iglesia en formas diferentes como San José, María, como San Francisco de Asís y tantos otros hombres y mujeres. Oremos, no se nos olvide este encargo. Paz y Bien.†

What is a Mass Intention?

When a Mass is celebrated, the priest can offer each celebration of the Eucharist for a particular person or intention. By doing so, special graces from God are applied upon that person or intention. This is an ancient tradition seen in St. Augustine's Confessions where St. Monica asks Augustine, "One thing only I ask you, that you remember me at the altar of the Lord."
