BEARING FRUIT

Few of us, even when we meditate on the image of the vine and branches, stop to really think about how God "prunes" us. For some there is the danger of thinking that we are already producing fruit for the kingdom, in deed and truth as John says, perhaps raising a family, being active in our parish, and so on. But even those branches which are bearing fruit, the Gospel tells us, can be pruned to produce still more. Today Saul, freshly "pruned" by his conversion, arrives in Jerusalem and meets resistance. Since he had been persecuting Christians, this was only natural. But even after he is accepted and begins to bear fruit, he meets further adversity, and his letters are filled with many accounts of how his trials "pruned" him to produce greater fruit for the kingdom. Like him, as long as we remain in Christ we will continue to bear fruit and, when the will of the Father determines it is time to prune us, the strength of the true vine must enable us to endure it. *

At the Eucharist, we gather to witness the transformation of "the fruit of the vine and work of human hands" into the very life blood of Christ. It is the source of our life and its highest expression. We offer with the gifts of bread and wine all that we are and all that we have done. It may not always seem like much. But we offer it so that it can be transformed into something beyond our power to achieve. Pondering the mystery of the life of Jesus within us will make us grow in our longing to be united with him through Holy Communion.

(LPI, Douglas Sousa)

PRAYER

Lord Jesus,
You are the vine and we are the branches
Because of you we are alive.
Because of you, we bear fruit.
As we reach out to you
Keep us mindful of the needy
Who yearn to be reached out to.
As we stretch out our hands to you,
Let us also stretch out our hands to the hungry
So that the fruit we bear in you
May nourish others.
Amen

Un mensaje del p. Carlos

PODAR Y NACER VAN JUNTOS.

Buenos días, vamos avanzando en el tiempo y la liturgia de hoy nos invita a hacer una revisión, ¿ está nuestro sarmiento conectado a la verdadera vida? . Esto es algo que solo nosotros podremos responder, pero es una imagen muy bella, si ustedes leen y meditan el evangelio van a sentirse alimentados con el Espíritu de Dios, El es la savia que corre por nuestras vidas como cristianos y nos regenera, limpia, renueva, sana, nos baña con su sabia, su presencia, su esencia.

Necesitamos permanecer, estar centrados en la vida de Jesús. Es el “yo soy” de Jesús, que actúa en todo cristiano quien da fuerza al “ustedes son”, a los discípulos. Lo que está verde tiene que dar fruto expandiendo el amor de Cristo, con el dinamismo de su Espíritu. Hay una repetición insistente de esta permanencia en Jesús: “en mí”, “sin mí no pueden hacer nada” “si permanecen en mí”,Un permanecer que se identifica con una relación de comunión no esporádica, ni puntual, sino que es intercambio vital constante, como opción ya hecha, que lleva a una actitud de vida creciente (escuchando la Palabra, con la oración, los sacramentos, ...); que descalifica otros métodos que no sean como él quiere e hizo: la entrega, el servicio, la fraternidad, la justicia.

Cuando escuchamos estas lecturas la palabra PERMANECER, es algo decisivo, que haya tomado la decisión de estar, llegar, buscarlo, orar, dejar las excusas y estar. Esto es lo que hace la permanencia y el compromiso. Y cuando hay permanencia, hay crecimiento, hay identificación, es algo constante. No es por una necesidad, es por mi convencimiento, en las buenas y en las malas.

Debemos aplicar y practicar este permanecer para poder dar frutos y ser identificados. La verdadera pascua se va acrecentando con nuestra permanencia en su palabra, en la eucaristía, en la oración. El contacto con la palabra de Jesús es algo vital, no basta creer que le conocemos por lo que nos cuentan, sino que debemos anclarnos, echar raíces en su enseñanza y en sus promesas.

Cuando hay ausencia de esta insistencia o cuando dejamos de permanecer en esas palabras de vida eterna, nos volvemos estériles, nos incapacitamos para vivir en comunidad y se nos acaba el compromiso y la creatividad del Resucitado. Se trata de activar nuestra vida interior. Esto es algo íntimo es de decisión propia. Cuando intimamos con Jesús y sus mensajes, lo conocemos mas y nos identificamos y enamoramos y es ahí cuando viene ese crecimiento en la vida de la Iglesia y del Resucitado y las demás áreas. Pero es decisión propia, debemos insistir, tocar, llamar, buscar, siempre seremos atendidos.

Dejemos que seamos podados, no seamos rebeldes, todo aquello que está seco en nuestra vida debe ser quitado, podado, esta es una oportunidad para todos. Por las ramas secas no corre la savia de Jesús, abramos y transformemos nuestras vidas.

Cuando quitamos lo que no está bien se hace espacio para para los frutos concretos del amor y el bien. Necesitamos estar enraizados en la vida del Resucitado, porque nos enseñó y dio ejemplo de cómo hacerlo, sigamos sus enseñanzas. Amen †

What is a Mass Intention?

When a Mass is celebrated, the priest can offer each celebration of the Eucharist for a particular person or intention. By doing so, special graces from God are applied upon that person or intention. This is an ancient tradition seen in St. Augustine's Confessions where St. Monica asks Augustine, "One thing only I ask you, that you remember me at the altar of the Lord."
