SUNDAY JUNE 27

First Reading: God did not make death, nor does God rejoice in the destruction of the living (Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24).

Psalm: I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me (Psalm 30).

Second Reading: Your abundance should supply the needs of the others (2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15).

Gospel: Your faith has saved you (Mark 5:21-43 [21-24, 35b-43]).

JESUS' EXAMPLE OF HELPING OTHERS

Today's Gospel reports two stories of healing. One story tells us about a father's great love for his dying daughter. The other story tells us about a desperate woman who risks much as she seeks healing from Jesus. In each story, the request for healing is itself a courageous act of faith, and yet very different circumstances are represented by the lives of each suffering person. Excerpt from LoyolaPress

SUNDAY JULY 4

First Reading: They shall know that a prophet has been among them (Ezekiel 2:2-5).

Psalm: Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy (Psalm 123).

Second Reading: I am content with weaknesses and hardships for the sake of Christ (2 Corinthians 12:7-10).

Gospel: "Where did this man get all this? Is he not the carpenter, the son of Mary?" (Mark 6:1-6a).

Un mensaje del p. Carlos

La Fe consistente nos hará perseverar en el camino.

Este domingo décimo tercero del tiempo ordinario el libro de la sabiduría nos recuerda algo importante y es que Dios quiere la vida. Creados a imagen y semejanza de Dios, estamos destinados a la vida eterna. Dios nos quiere junto a sí. Esta es la divina voluntad que choca constantemente con la condición ineludible de habernos creado libres.

Dios pone todo de su parte, hasta su propio Hijo, para que alcancemos el amor y la felicidad en plenitud. Son nuestras decisiones las que nos apartan o nos unen a Dios.

Para que haya libre decisión tienen que haber distintas opciones. Una de ellas no viene de Dios y, aparentemente, ofrece salud cuando, en verdad, genera enfermedad y muerte.

Todos hemos experimentado, a uno u otro nivel, las consecuencias de nuestras decisiones, pero ¡he aquí el Evangelio!: nadie está perdido, aún enfermo o muerto en vida, si confía en el Señor y, “levantándose”, comparte su gozo con los hermanos.

En el evangelio se nos muestra, con inequívocas acciones, el poder de Cristo que manifiesta la misericordia divina, la compasión y la ternura de Dios. Presenta unas de las más dolorosas experiencias humanas para hablarnos del alma herida o muerta por el pecado: la enfermedad y la muerte.

No hemos de quedarnos en consideraciones que nos lleven a indagar en la vida de la mujer enferma o de Jairo y su familia. Los milagros del Señor tienen siempre un valor de signo. La sangre que pierde la mujer enferma nos sugiere, según la concepción bíblica, la vida que van perdiendo los que se obstinan en ir por el mal camino. La decisión de tocar el manto, la determinación y la humildad. La reacción del Señor nos hace comprender el valor de la fe como condición.

¡Ojo con confundir el poder de la confianza en Cristo con la forma concreta de manifestarla! La gracia viene de Cristo y no del manto. ¡Cuántos ritos, devociones y obsoletas costumbres hemos de ir cambiando!

La muerte de la niña puede ser imagen de la percepción fatalista de la muerte como el final sin remedio. “¿Para qué molestar más al maestro?” como diciendo que ni Dios tiene poder sobre la muerte. Jesús es rápido y contundente ante la desesperación de los que lloran y se lamentan: “La niña no está muerta, está dormida”, como diciendo que la muerte no es el final. Vendrá cuando venga, pero no tiene el poder de matar. El único que tiene poder de matarse es uno mismo. A eso lo llamamos condenación. La niña murió, quizá, habiendo conocido a sus nietos. Y, aplicado a nosotros, podemos decir que, aunque parezca que estemos al borde de la fosa por nuestra mala vida, por nuestros pecados, todavía es tiempo de salvación. “No temas; basta que tengas fe”.

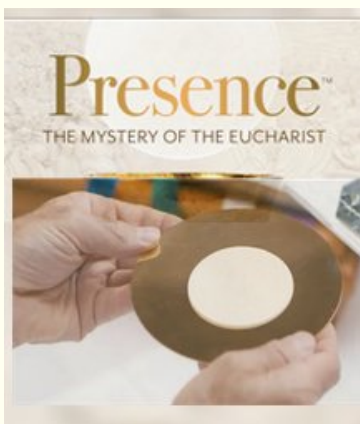

Esa es la seguridad de Jesús en la vida de todos, basta que tengas fe, la fe nos dará la fortaleza y la sabiduría para enfrentar las situaciones incluso la muerte.

Declaremos nuestra fe y adhesión a Jesús el Salvador del mundo en las buenas y en las malas, pero con El, agarrados de su mano. Paz y Bien. †

OPPORTUNITIES TO SERVE & GROW IN FAITH

Healing is something we all seek at some point in our lives. Whether we have battled a life-threatening disease or suffered through a common cold, we have all sought physical healing. In this week's Gospel, Jesus reveals his power to heal and bring forth new life. He also longs to heal you of the things that are preventing you from growing in love for him—whether physical or spiritual. Have you ever approached him with the faith of Jairus or the hemorrhaging woman? How much do you trust his power to heal your body and soul? Dive into this week's gospel reflection on Formed.org (All who attend our church can access Formed.org at no cost!)

PRESENCE - BREAD FOR THE JOURNEY

Food is one of our most basic needs. We can't live for long without it, and when we are in need of it, our bodies let us know with a hunger that can be nearly impossible to ignore. As indispensable as material food is to our physical life, receiving the Eucharist is even more vital to our spiritual life. Watch this powerful video on FORMED.ORG!

What is a Mass Intention?

When a Mass is celebrated, the priest can offer each celebration of the Eucharist for a particular person or intention. By doing so, special graces from God are applied upon that person or intention. This is an ancient tradition seen in St. Augustine's Confessions where St. Monica asks Augustine, "One thing only I ask you, that you remember me at the altar of the Lord." If you would like to add someone please complete this form:

SACRAMENT CARE

Preparation Infant Baptism

It is a cause of great joy and celebration to baptize your child (or children) into the Catholic Church, especially here at Our Lady of Guadalupe Church. Taking this step is an integral part of your faith, the beginning of your promise to raise your child in the teachings of Christ and the Catholic Church. We offer virtual classes via Zoom for infant baptisms (ages birth to 5 years old) on the first Wednesday of each month from 7-8:30 PM in English. For more information, visit our parish website. If your child is over 5 years old, our team will provide you with additional information on the baptismal preparation process.

Marriage Preparation

To begin the marriage preparation process contact the parish office at least six months before the date you wish to get married. Please do not plan on a specific wedding date until you have had your first meeting with the Priest who will marry you. VOCATION DISCERNMENT

RESPONDING TO THE CALL

Do we truly know the voice of Christ? Do we truly respond to the voice of our shepherd with our own distinctive voice? How often we attempt to imitate those around us, appropriating the response of another member of the flock to Christ. Perhaps we need to balance the image of being sheep of one flock with the image from the second reading, which tells us that we are all children of God. What child has precisely the same interaction with parents as his or her siblings? Instead, they frequently do and say things to distinguish themselves in the eyes of their parents.

Whether we use the image of children or of sheep to understand our relationship with Christ, we believe that we are all known and called by name. With this great gift comes a responsibility: to respond to the call with our own distinctive voice, to take time to discern exactly what our call is, to determine precisely what the will of the Father is for each of us.

Safeguard the Children

Foster one-on-one relationships safely

One-on-one time with trusted adults is healthy for children and helps them to build self-esteem and long-term relationships. You can protect your child while still ensuring they have time and opportunity to build these relationships. You can drop in unexpectedly when your child is with another adult, even if that person is a trusted family member. Insist on observable outings, in public places. Talk with your child after an outing, noting his mood or her ability to confidently tell you what happened. For more information, visit <https://www.d2l.org/education/5-steps/step-2/>.

Fomente las relaciones personales de forma segura

El tiempo a solas con adultos de confianza es saludable para los niños y les ayuda a desarrollar la autoestima y las relaciones a largo plazo. Puede proteger a su hijo/hija y, al mismo tiempo, asegurarse de que él o ella tenga tiempo y oportunidades para construir esas relaciones. Usted puede pasar inesperadamente cuando su hijo o hija está con otro adulto, aun cuando esa persona sea un familiar de confianza. Insista en salidas observables, en lugares públicos. Hable con su hijo después de una salida y observe su estado de ánimo o su capacidad para contarle con seguridad lo que sucedió. Para obtener más información, visite <https://www.d2l.org/education/5-steps/step-2/>.
